Harvey M. Grandle III

BELLEVUE, Wash. - Harvey M. Grandle III, 76, passed away at his home in Bellevue, Wash. on July 28 from post-polio complications.

He was born Jan. 20, 1929 at Pittsburg to Dr. Harvey Marion Grandle II and Jessie DeLong Grandle.

Harvey graduated from Pittsburg High School and attended Pittsburg State University and was a 1952 graduate of the University of Kansas. He completed MIT's Sloan Senior Executive Program in 1976.

Harvey was a member of the Alpha Nu chapter of Beta Theta Pi, Boy Scouts of America, and was a volunteer consultant with the Resource Center for the Handicapped and Washington State's Department of Social and Health Services and Division of Vocational Rehabilitation. As a teenager, Harvey enjoyed logging and mountain climbing in Colorado. Later in life he played on and coached wheelchair basketball teams.

He retired after 40 years with The Boeing Company, his most recent position being Director of Internal Audit for Boeing Computer Services.

He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Mary; daughters, Pat Cantu, of Bellevue, Marian O'Connell, of Olathe; five grandchildren.

At his request there will be no service.

© 2005, The Morning Sun
http://morningsun.net/stories/080705/obi_20050807030.shtml
Obituaries

Harvey M. Grandle III

BELLEVUE, Wash. — Harvey M. Grandle III, 76, passed away at his home in Bellevue, Wash. on July 28 from post-polio complications.

He was born Jan. 20, 1929 at Pittsburg to Dr. Harvey Marion Grandle II and Jessie DeLong Grandle.

Harvey graduated from Pittsburg High School and attended Pittsburg State University and was a 1952 graduate of the University of Kansas. He completed MIT's Sloan Senior Executive Program in 1976.

Harvey was a member of the Alpha Nu chapter of Beta Theta Pi, Boy Scouts of America, and was a volunteer consultant with the Resource Center for the Handicapped and Washington State's Department of Social and Health Services and Division of Vocational Rehabilitation. As a teenager, Harvey enjoyed logging and mountain climbing in Colorado. Later in life he played on and coached wheelchair basketball teams.

He retired after 40 years with The Boeing Company, his most recent position being Director of Internal Audit for Boeing Computer Services.

He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Mary; daughters, Pat Cantu, of Bellevue, Marian O'Connell, of Olathe; five grandchildren.

At his request there will be no service.