SCAMMON - Shirley Ann (DeRidder) Taylor Locke, 64, of Scammon, died at 2:50 p.m. Sunday, April 3, 2005, at the Hospital District No. 1 in Girard where she was admitted on Wednesday, March 23.

She was born June 25, 1940, at Ringo, a daughter of Oscar and May (Mayberry) DeRidder. She graduated from Girard High School in 1959.

She married Robert Taylor on Sept. 23, 1960. They were divorced. She married Lloyd L. Locke on Aug. 15, 1987 at the First Presbyterian Church in Girard. He survives of the home.

She worked as a cook for SEK-CAP Congregate Meals, Elm Acres and ARA food services. She received her truck driving certificate from Fort Scott Community College in March 1986.

She was a member of Wesley House in Pittsburg.

Survivors include a son Russell Taylor of Frontenac; two grandchildren; and numerous cousins.

She was preceded in death by a brother Oscar DeRidder Jr.; and a sister Darlene DeRidder.

Memorial services will be 10 a.m. today at the Wesley House in Pittsburg with Rev. Mary Ohlmeier officiating. Burial will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Girard Cemetery with Rev. Sandy Stallings officiating. Friends are asked to meet at the cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Smith-Carson-Wall Funeral Home in Girard.

©Copyright 2005 The Morning Sun
http://morningsun.net/stories/041205/obi_20050412020.shtml
Obituaries

Shirley Ann Taylor Locke

SCAMMON — Shirley Ann (DeRidder) Taylor Locke, 64, of Scammon, died at 2:50 p.m. Sunday, April 3, 2005, at the Hospital District No. 1 in Girard where she was admitted on Wednesday, March 23.

She was born June 25, 1940, at Ringo, a daughter of Oscar and May (Mayberry) DeRidder. She graduated from Girard High School in 1959.

She married Robert Taylor on Sept. 23, 1960. They were divorced. She married Lloyd L. Locke on Aug. 15, 1987 at the First Presbyterian Church in Girard. He survives of the home.

She worked as a cook for SEK-CAP Congregate Meals, Elm Acres and ARA food services. She received her truck driving certificate from Fort Scott Community College in March 1986.

She was a member of Wesley House in Pittsburg.

Survivors include a son Russell Taylor of Frontenac; two grandchildren; and numerous cousins.

She was preceded in death by a brother Oscar DeRidder Jr.; and a sister Darlene DeRidder.

Memorial services will be 10 a.m. today at the Wesley House in Pittsburg with Rev. Mary Ohlemeyer officiating. Burial will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Girard Cemetery with Rev. Sandy Stallings officiating. Friends are asked to meet at the cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Smith-Carson-Wall Funeral Home in Girard.