Leon V. Skubitz

Leon V. Skubitz, 92, of Pittsburg, died at 10:07 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 18, 2005, at the Mt. Carmel Regional Medical Center.

Skubitz

He was born April 30, 1913, in Fleming, to Antone and Mary Palcher Skubitz. He attended schools at Fleming.

He served in the U.S. Army during World War II as a Sgt. Major with the 91st Infantry Division. He was serving during the D-Day invasion on Utah Beach in France.

He worked in the coal mines for severeral years and then worked for over 30 years for the Kansas Gas Service Company, before retiring in 1978.

Membership was held in the Presbyterian Church; Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Lodge No. 412; and the Benjamin Fuller American Legion Post No. 64.

He is survived by several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Lewis and Edward Skubitz; and five sisters, Mary McQueen, Pauline Bresnick, Gala Wereholtz, Antonia Rumbaugh, and Barbara Miller Stryker.

Graveside services will be 11 a.m. Thursday at the Highland Park Cemetery, with Rev. Verl Strong of the Frontenac United Methodist Church officiating. Burial will follow the services. The Benjamin A. Fuller Post 364 of the American Legion will provide Flag-folding services. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Brenner Mortuary, where friends may call after 1 p.m. Wednesday.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth St., Pittsburg.

© 2005, The Morning Sun
http://morningsun.net/stories/092005/obi_20050920016.shtml
Leon V. Skubitz

Leon V. Skubitz, 92, of Pittsburg, died at 10:07 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 18, 2005, at the Mt. Carmel Regional Medical Center.

He was born April 30, 1913, in Fleming, to Antone and Mary Palcher Skubitz. He attended schools at Fleming.

He served in the U.S. Army during World War II as a Sgt. Major with the 91st Infantry Division. He was serving during the D-Day invasion on Utah Beach in France.

He worked in the coal mines for several years and then worked for over 30 years for the Kansas Gas Service Company, before retiring in 1978.

Membership was held in the Presbyterian Church; Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Lodge No. 412; and the Benjamin Fuller American Legion Post No. 64.

He is survived by several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Lewis and Edward Skubitz; and five sisters, Mary McQueen, Pauline Bresnick, Gala Wereholtz, Antonia Rumbaugh, and Barbara Miller Stryker.

Graveside services will be 11 a.m. Thursday at the Highland Park Cemetery, with Rev. Verl Strong of the Frontenac United Methodist Church officiating. Burial will follow the services. The Benjamin A. Fuller Post 364 of the American Legion will provide Flag-folding services. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Brenner Mortuary, where friends may call after 1 p.m. Wednesday.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth St., Pittsburg.