
She was born Jan. 14, 1918, in Greenbush, to Frank and Mary (LaForge) Brazil. She graduated from St. Francis High School in 1936 with a Normal Training Certificate.

She taught in one-room country schools. One of those was Lone Elm now a museum in St. Paul. She attended Pittsburg State Teachers' College and graduated valedictorian from Tomlinson Vocational School in St. Petersburg, Fla.

She worked in Kansas City as a Legal Secretary for the then-prestigious law firm of Blackmar, Swanson, Midgley, Jones and Eager. She also worked as Secretary to the Assistant Director of the Federal Housing Administration when Vivian Truman was director of the Kansas City office of FHA and his brother, Harry S. Truman, was president of the United States. She also worked at McDill Air Base in Tampa, Fla., during World War II.

She was a member of the Catholic church.

She married Forrest Smith on May 4, 1940, at St. Aloysius Church in Greenbush. He survives of the home.

Additional survivors include one sister, Mary Lou Schleicher of Overland Park; one brother, Chris Brazil of Chanute; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Joe Patrick and William Brazil; and seven sisters, Cora Coomes, Anna Beachner, Frances Diskin, Bernadette Diskin, Euphrasia Diskin, Josephine Banta and Ada Jones.

Mass of Christian burial will be at 10 a.m. today at the St. Francis Catholic Church in St. Paul with Fr. Daniel Vacca officiating. Burial will be in the St. Francis Cemetery [sic].

Arrangements are under the direction of the Forbes-Hoffman Funeral Home.

She was born Jan. 14, 1918, in Greenbush, to Frank and Mary (LaForge) Brazil. She graduated from St. Francis High School in 1936 with a Normal Training Certificate.

She taught in one-room country schools. One of those was Lone Elm now a museum in St. Paul. She attended Pittsburg State Teachers’ College and graduated valedictorian from Tomlinson Vocational School in St. Petersburg, Fla.

She worked in Kansas City as a Legal Secretary for the then-prestigious law firm of Blackmar, Swanson, Midgley, Jones and Eager. She also worked as Secretary to the Assistant Director of the Federal Housing Administration when Vivian Truman was director of the Kansas City office of FHA and his brother, Harry S. Truman, was president of the United States. She also worked at McDill Air Base in Tampa, Fla., during World War II.

She was a member of the Catholic church.

She married Forrest Smith on May 4, 1940, at St. Aloysius Church in Greenbush. He survives of the home.

Additional survivors include one sister, Mary Lou Schleicher of Overland Park; one brother, Chris Brazil of Chanute; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Joe Patrick and William Brazil; and seven sisters, Cora Coomes, Anna Beachner, Frances Diskin, Bernadette Diskin, Euphrosia Diskin, Josephine Banta and Ada Jones.

Mass of Christian burial will be at 10 a.m. today at the St. Francis Catholic Church in St. Paul with Fr. Daniel Vacca officiating. Burial will be in the St. Francis Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Forbes-Hoffman Funeral Home.