Gladys N. Alexander

She was born on March 2, 1897, in Mt. Vernon, Mo., to James W. and Essie Bogie Alexander. She came to Pittsburg as an infant and attended schools in Pittsburg. She graduated from the Normal Training School, now Pittsburg State University, and taught in the Pittsburg school system for 45 years at the old Central and Westside schools.

Miss Alexander was a lifetime member of the Pittsburg Presbyterian Church, a member of the Pittsburg and the Kansas Retired Teachers Association, a life member of the White Shrine and Rob Morris Chapter, Order of Eastern Star and a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

She is survived by six nieces and one nephew.

Graveside services will be 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Highland Park Cemetery with the Rev. Robert Bardeen of the Pittsburg Presbyterian Church officiating. Friends may call at the Brenner Chapel after 1 p.m. today.
Gladys N. Alexander

She was born on March 2, 1897, in Mt. Vernon, Mo., to James W. and Essie Bogle Alexander. She came to Pittsburg as an infant and attended schools in Pittsburg. She graduated from the Normal Training School, now Pittsburg State University, and taught in the Pittsburg school system for 45 years at the old Central and Westside schools.

Miss Alexander was a lifetime member of the Pittsburg Presbyterian Church, a member of the Pittsburg and the Kansas Retired Teachers Association, a life member of the White Shrine and Rob Morris Chapter, Order of Eastern Star and a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

She is survived by six nieces and one nephew.

Graveside services will be 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Highland Park Cemetery with the Rev. Robert Bardeen of the Pittsburg Presbyterian Church officiating. Friends may call at the Brenner Chapel after 1 p.m. today.