Malcolm Allen [August 8, 1975]

Malcolm A. Allen, 74, of 805 W. Fifth, died at 12:45 a.m. Tuesday. He had been ill the past year and a patient at Mt. Carmel Medical Center since June 16.

He was born April 8, 1901 in Pittsburg, where he lived all of his life. Mr. Allen was a Kansas State College of Pittsburg graduate, active in the music department. He was a member of the college choir and sang for a number of years in the annual spring presentation of Handel’s oratorio, "The Messiah" under the direction of the late Dr. Walter McCray. He taught school in Oklahoma and Kansas for many years. He was a veteran of World War II. Mr. Allen was a member of the Countryside Christian Church, where he was a trustee, taught an adult class and served on the church board. He was also a member of the American Legion Post No. 64, American Assn. of Retired Persons, National Retired Teachers Assn. and the Arcadia Masonic Lodge No.329 A.F. & A.M.

There are no immediate survivors.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Countryside Christian Church, with the Rev. John Oliver officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Olive Cemetery. Friends may call at the Smith Chapel in Pittsburg after noon today.
Malcolm Allen

Malcolm A. Allen, 74, of 805 W. Fifth, died at 12:45 a.m. Tuesday. He had been ill the past year and a patient at Mt. Carmel Medical Center since June 16.

He was born April 8, 1901 in Pittsburg, where he lived all of his life. Mr. Allen was a Kansas State College of Pittsburg graduate, active in the music department. He was a member of the college choir and sang for a number of years in the annual spring presentation of Handel’s oratorio, “The Messiah” under the direction of the late Dr. Walter McCray. He taught school in Oklahoma and Kansas for many years. He was a veteran of World War II. Mr. Allen was a member of the Countryside Christian Church, where he was a trustee, taught an adult class and served on the church board. He was also a member of the American Legion Post No. 64, American Assn. of Retired Persons, National Retired Teachers Assn. and the Arcadia Masonic Lodge No. 329 A.F. & A.M.

There are no immediate survivors.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Countryside Christian Church, with the Rev. John Oliver officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Olive Cemetery. Friends may call at the Smith Chapel in Pittsburg after noon today.