Normal Anderson [Joplin Globe, February 27, 1990]

SHELDON, Mo. - Normal Jane Anderson, 83, Sheldon, died Saturday at Nevada City Hospital after several months of ill health.

Mrs. Anderson was born March 10, 1906, in Anderson. She taught school in Kansas City and Anderson. She was a member of the Baptist Church and Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority at the former Kansas State Teachers' College, Pittsburg, Kan.

She is survived by a son, Jay Anderson, Sheldon; a daughter, Nancy Jane Ekern, Mexico; a sister, Pauline Mitchell, Anderson; six grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at National Cemetery, Fort Leavenworth, Kan., under the direction of Ferry Funeral Home, Nevada.

Friends may call until 10 a.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.
Normal Anderson

SHELDON, Mo. — Normal Jane Anderson, 83, Sheldon, died Saturday at Nevada City Hospital after several months of ill health.

Mrs. Anderson was born March 10, 1906, in Anderson. She taught school in Kansas City and Anderson. She was a member of the Baptist Church and Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority at the former Kansas State Teachers’ College, Pittsburg, Kan.

She is survived by a son, Jay Anderson, Sheldon; a daughter, Nancy Jane Ekern, Mexico; a sister, Pauline Mitchell, Anderson; six grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at National Cemetery, Fort Leavenworth, Kan., under the direction of Ferry Funeral Home, Nevada.

Friends may call until 10 a.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.