Robert Angleton

ERIE - Robert Angleton, 43, of rural Erie, died at 11:41 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 25, 2003 from injuries he suffered in a motor vehicle accident on U.S. 59 two miles north of Moran.

He was born on March 30, 1960 at Chanute to Cecil A. and Clara May (Deweese) Angleton.

On June 8, 1984 he married Connie L. Weir at Erie.

He was a lifelong Erie area resident and graduated from Erie High School in 1978. He attended two years of vocational technical school at Pittsburg State University.

From 1980 to 1990, he was employed by Sears Brothers and then for three years he worked for Beachner Grain Co. Since 1993, he had worked as a milk hauler for Peters and Sons.

He was a member of the Erie Federated Church, Ducks Unlimited and Water Foul U.S.A. He loved to hunt turkey and geese.

Survivors include his wife of the home, a son, Rylie L. Angleton of the home; two daughters, Deidre M. Angleton and Kylie L. Angleton, both of the home; his parents of Erie; two sisters, Darlene Sears and Gayle Kanute, both of Erie; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Friday at the Erie Federated Church with the Rev. Ralph Jarboe and the Rev. Mark Clevenger officiating. Burial was in the East Hill Cemetery at Erie.

Arrangements were under the direction of the Pierce-Carson-Wall Funeral Home of Erie.

©Copyright 2003 The Morning Sun

http://www.morningsun.net/stories/113003/obi_20031130021.shtml
ERIE — Robert Angleton, 43, of rural Erie, died at 11:41 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 25, 2003 from injuries he suffered in a motor vehicle accident on U.S. 59 two miles north of Moran.

He was born on March 30, 1960 at Chanute to Cecil A. and Clara May (Deweese) Angleton.

On June 8, 1984 he married Connie L. Weir at Erie.

He was a lifelong Erie area resident and graduated from Erie High School in 1978. He attended two years of vocational technical school at Pittsburg State University.

From 1980 to 1990, he was employed by Sears Brothers and then for three years he worked for Beachner Grain Co. Since 1993, he had worked as a milk hauler for Peters and Sons.

He was a member of the Erie Federated Church, Ducks Unlimited and Water Foul U.S.A. He loved to hunt turkey, pheasants, quail, and geese.

Survivors include his wife of the home; a son, Rylie L. Angleton of the home; two daughters, Deidre M. Angleton and Kylie L. Angleton, both of the home; his parents of Erie; two sisters, Darlene Sears and Gayle Kanute, both of Erie; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Friday at the Erie Federated Church with the Rev. Ralph Jarboe and the Rev. Mark Clevenger officiating. Burial was in the East Hill Cemetery at Erie.

Arrangements were under the direction of the Pierce-Carson-Wall Funeral Home of Erie.