
Mr. Arnold was born in 1942 at Pittsburg. He had lived in Topeka, Galena, Emporia, and Atchinson, before moving to Overland Park in 1989. He received his B.S. Ed. In Elementary Education, Master of Science in Elementary Education, Specialist in Education in General Administration at Pittsburg State University.

He was owner and operator of Arnold's Music, Inc. He had been an instructor in the Topeka, Shawnee Mission, and Galena public school systems and was also a Jayhawk instructor at Fort Scott Community College and taught off-campus courses at Paola. He was a former administrator for the Galena public school system and the Kansas City Archdiocese. He had worked at U. S. Sprint as a telemarketing specialist in the outbound I.M.G - A.E.M. Winback Department. He was owner of the A&W Store and Party Shop.

Mr. Arnold was a member of St. Ann's Catholic Church in Prairie Village and was a 3rd Degree Knights of Columbus.

Survivors include his wife, Wendy Sue Arnold, of the home; two daughters, Crystal Michelle Arnold and Ashley Elizabeth Arnold, both of the home; two sons, Michael Emoreth Arnold of Los Angeles, Calif., and Charles Arnold of Topeka; one sister, Paulette Sue Green of Fort Scott; and his parents, Emory and Lavone Arnold of Fort Scott.

Services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Prairie Village. The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at the McGilley-Hoge Funeral Home in Overland Park. The rosary will be said at 7 p.m. Monday. Gravelside services will be at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the Evergreen Cemetery in Fort Scott.
Abraham E. 'Dan' Arnold

Mr. Arnold was born in 1942 at Pittsburg. He had lived in Topeka, Galena, Emporia, and Atchison before moving to Overland Park in 1989. He received his B.S. Ed. in Elementary Education, Master of Science in Elementary Education, and Specialist in Education in General Administration at Pittsburg State University.

He was owner and operator of Arnold's Music, Inc. He had been an instructor in the Topeka, Shawnee Mission, and Galena public school systems and was also a Jayhawk instructor at Fort Scott Community College and taught off-campus courses at Paola. He was a former administrator for the Galena public school system and the Kansas City Archdiocese. He had worked at U.S. Sprint as a telemarketing specialist in the outbound L.M.G.-A.E.M. Winback Department. He was owner of the A&W Store and Party Shop.

Mr. Arnold was a member of St. Ann's Catholic Church in Prairie Village and was a 3rd Degree Knights of Columbus.

Survivors include his wife, Wendy Sue Arnold, of the home; two daughters, Crystal Michelle Arnold and Ashley Elizabeth Arnold, both of the home; two sons, Michael Emoreth Arnold of Los Angeles, Calif., and Charles Arnold of Topeka; one sister, Paulette Sue Green of Fort Scott; and his parents, Emory and Lavone Arnold of Fort Scott.

Services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Prairie Village. The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at the McGilley-Hoge Funeral Home in Overland Park. The rosary will be said at 7 p.m. Monday. Graveside services will be 3 p.m. Tuesday at the Evergreen Cemetery in Fort Scott.