
Miss Arth taught at Indian Hills Junior High School for 26 years, retiring in 1981. She was a member of the National Education Association and its Kansas branch and was former secretary of the Shawnee Mission Teachers Association. She was a member of the Kansas Retired Teachers Association and the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

She received a bachelor's degree in bacteriology from Purdue University in 1943, a master's degree in education from the University of Kansas City in 1955 and a master's degree in mathematics from Emporia (Kan.) State University in 1965.

She was a volunteer for the Nelson Gallery, the Salvation Army and the Metropolitan Lutheran Ministry. She was born in East St. Louis, Ill., and lived in Collinsville, Ill., and Cincinnati before moving to this area in 1954.

Survivors include a brother, Norbert Arth, West Lafayette, Ind., and her stepmother, Helen Arth, Collinsville. Memorial services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at Newcomer's Overland Park Chapel. Friends may call from 6 to 8 p.m. today at the chapel. The family suggests contributions to the Metropolitan Lutheran Ministry.
