HUTCHINSON — Jacqueline "Jackie" Ashcraft, 70, of Hutchinson, died Tuesday, Dec. 21, 1993, at Halsted Hospital.

She was born Sept. 27, 1923, at Hastings, Neb., the daughter of Jake and Elsie Kister Hefnider. She was a graduate of Kansas State College of Pittsburg. She moved to Hutchinson in 1967 from Pittsburg.

She taught school from 1967 to 1988 at Lincoln Elementary School at Hutchinson, retiring in 1988.

Membership was in the Zion Lutheran Church in Hutchinson, the National Educators Association, the Kansas State Teachers Association, the Hutchinson Teachers Association, Extension Homemakers Unit in Hutchinson American Legion Post No.68.

She was a World War II veteran of the U.S. Marines.

Survivors include two sons, Robert Ashcraft of Spokane, Wash., and James D. Ashcraft of Hutchinson; one daughter, Eudon Dutton of Elkhart; and six grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Zion Lutheran Church in Hutchinson with the Rev. Robert Albin officiating. Her body has been donated to the University of Kansas Medical Center.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson & Sons Funeral Home in Hutchinson.
JACQUELINE ‘JACKIE’ ASHCRAFT

HUTCHINSON — Jacqueline “Jackie” Ashcraft, 70, of Hutchinson, died Tuesday, Dec. 21, 1993, at Halsted Hospital.

She was born Sept. 27, 1923, at Hastings, Neb., the daughter of Jake and Elsie Kister Hefnider. She was a graduate of Kansas State College of Pittsburg. She moved to Hutchinson in 1967 from Pittsburg.

She taught school from 1967 to 1988 at Lincoln Elementary School at Hutchinson, retiring in 1988.

Membership was in the Zion Lutheran Church in Hutchinson, the National Educators Association, the Kansas State Teachers Association, the Hutchinson Teachers Association, Extension Homemakers Unit in Hutchinson and American Legion Post No. 68.

She was a World War II veteran of the U.S. Marines.

Survivors include two sons, Robert Ashcraft of Spokane, Wash., and James D. Ashcraft of Hutchinson; one daughter, Eudon Dutton of Elkhart; and six grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Zion Lutheran Church in Hutchinson with the Rev. Robert Albin officiating. Her body has been donated to the University of Kansas Medical Center.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson & Sons Funeral Home in Hutchinson.