Leona Elma Babcock, 76, of 207 E. 14th, died at 12:10 a.m. Wednesday, April 23, 1980, at Mt. Carmel Medical Center. She had been ill for about two years and a resident of Sunset Manor Rest Home since September.

She was born July 12, 1903, in Mena, Ark., to Bert M. and Nora A. (Scott) Babcock. The family moved to Pittsburg in 1906. She graduated from Pittsburg High School in 1922 and from Kansas State Teacher's College, now Pittsburg State University, in 1933.

Miss Babcock began her teaching career at Picher, Okla., in 1925. She then taught in Hatfield and Cove, Ark., and for the last 15 years taught in Bonner Springs before retiring in 1965.

She was a member of the First Christian Church, the Christian Women's Fellowship, the Kansas Retired Teachers Association and the Kansas Club. She was a life member of the Kansas National Education Association.

Survivors include a brother, Hermann Babcock of Heavener, Okla.; a sister, Mrs. Byron (Opal) Mason of 313 E. 15th; and five nephews.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at the Bath Funeral Home with the Rev. Ting Champie officiating. Burial will be in Highland Park Cemetery. The family will receive friends at the funeral home from 7 to 8 p.m. today.
