TOPEKA - Dorothy Ellen Baker, 70, Topeka, died Friday, Oct. 27, 1978 in a Topeka hospital.

Mrs. Baker was born Aug. 26, 1908 in McCune and had been a resident of Topeka for the past 40 years.

She graduated from Kansas State College in Pittsburg in 1929 and taught English for two years Altoona.

She later received a masters degree from Kansas State College.

Mrs. Baker was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Topeka.

She married Herbert J. Baker on March 11, 1933 in Neodesha. He survives.

Other survivors include one son, Philip A. Baker, Leewood; one daughter, Barbara Hansen, Atlanta, Ga.; three brothers, Fred Wolfe, Eldorado; Raymond Wolfe, Coffeyville, and Charles E: Wolfe, Tulsa, Ok.; one sister, Mrs. Marvin Wayne, Neodesha; and six grandchildren.

Services will be at 9 a.m. Tuesday at the Penwell-Gabel Funeral Home in Topeka.

Graveside services will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the McCune Cemetery.
TOPEKA — Dorothy Ellen Baker, 70, Topeka, died Friday, Oct. 27, 1978, in a Topeka hospital.

Mrs. Baker was born Aug. 26, 1908 in McCune and had been a resident of Topeka for the past 40 years.

She graduated from Kansas State College in Pittsburg in 1929 and taught English for two years in Altoona.

She later received a masters degree from Kansas State College.

Mrs. Baker was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Topeka.

She married Herbert J. Baker on March 11, 1933 in Neodesha. He survives.

Other survivors include one son, Philip A. Baker, Leewood; one daughter, Barbara Hansen, Atlanta, Ga.; three brothers, Fred Wolfe, Eldorado; Raymond Wolfe, Coffeyville, and Charles E. Wolfe, Tulsa, Ok.; one sister, Mrs. Marvin Wayne, Neodesha; and six grandchildren.

Services will be at 9 a.m. Tuesday at the Penwell-Gabel Funeral Home in Topeka.

Graveside services will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the McCune Cemetery.