Russell Baker

CARROLLTON, Texas - Russell Baker, 72, of Carrollton, Texas, died Sunday, Nov. 2, 2003, after a battle with cancer.

He was born July 24, 1931, at Weir.

He received his master's of science degree at Pittsburg State University. He did post-master's work at the University of Nevada-Reno and at the University of Dallas.

He served in the U.S. Army Chemical Corp during the Korean Conflict.

He worked for North American Aviation. He retired from Aerospatiale Helicopter Corp. after 20 years of service. He was an active member of Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include his wife of 45 years, Martha Baker; and one daughter, Lynn Puchlopek.

Memorial services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church in Dallas. Arrangements are under the direction of Restland Funeral Home of Dallas.

©Copyright 2003 The Morning Sun

http://www.morningsun.net/stories/110403/obi_20031104005.shtml
CARROLLTON, Texas — Russell Baker, 72, of Carrollton, Texas, died Sunday, Nov. 2, 2003, after a battle with cancer.

He was born July 24, 1931, at Weir.

He received his master’s of science degree at Pittsburg State University. He did post-master’s work at the University of Nevada-Reno and at the University of Dallas.

He served in the U.S. Army Chemical Corp during the Korean Conflict.

He worked for North American Aviation. He retired from Aerospatiale Helicopter Corp. after 20 years of service.

He was an active member of Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include his wife of 45 years, Martha Baker; and one daughter, Lynn Puchlopek.

Memorial services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church in Dallas. Arrangements are under the direction of Restland Funeral Home of Dallas.