Hazel S. Baker (Cox), B 1928

To Whom it May Concern:

Hazel S. Baker, 83, 5601 Bethel Pike, Muncie, died Friday at Ball Memorial Hospital following an illness of one year.

A graduate of Kansas State University, she taught home economics at Ball State University and in Salem and Northwestern school corporations for several years.

She was a member of Athene Circle of Middletown and Daleville Christian Church. She was involved in 4-H projects throughout central Indiana.

She is survived by two sons, Thomas C. Baker of Springfield, Ohio and David F. Baker of Florida; one daughter, Carolyn Baker Schloss of Fort Wayne; several nieces and nephews.

Services will be 10 A.M. Tuesday at Ballard and Sons Funeral Home at Daleville with the Rev. Gary McManus of Daleville Christian Church officiating. Burial will be at East Maplewood Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Daleville Christian Church through the funeral home.
To Whom it May Concern:

Hazel S. Baker, 83, 5601 Bethel Pike, Muncie, died Friday at Ball Memorial Hospital following an illness of one year.

A graduate of Kansas State University, she taught home economics at Ball State University and in Salem and Northwestern school corporations for several years.

She was a member of Athene Circle of Middletown and Daleville Christian Church. She was involved in 4-H projects throughout central Indiana.

She is survived by two sons, Thomas C. Baker of Springfield, Ohio and David F. Baker of Florida; one daughter, Carolyn Baker Schloss of Fort Wayne; several nieces and nephews.

Services will be 10 A.M. Tuesday at Ballard and Sons Funeral Home at Daleville with the Rev. Gary McManus of Daleville Christian Church officiating. Burial will be at East Maplewood Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Daleville Christian Church through the funeral home.