SAN DIEGO - George "Cliff" Baker, 66, of San Diego, died suddenly Thursday, July 31, 2003, at The Coronado Golf Course in Coronado, Calif.

He was born May 1, 1937, at Pittsburg, to George and Wilma Baker.

He was raised and schooled in Pittsburg.

He graduated from Pittsburg State University in 1959. He spent the next 20 years in the Kansas City area. He left his position as vice president of marketing and sales at United Computer Systems to start his own business, Applied Information Science. He sold this business in 1982 and relocated to San Diego, where he spent the majority of his professional time as an independent sales and marketing consultant for a number of corporations.

Survivors include his wife, Eva; one daughter, Carrie Baker Dodge, of San Diego; one stepdaughter, Angela McNeal, of San Diego; one stepson, David Cardiff, of Desoto, and two grandchildren.

A celebration and remembrance of his life is scheduled from 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday at The Coronado Golf Course, Coronado. Merkley-Mitchell Mortuary, San Diego, is handling arrangements.

©Copyright 2003 The Morning Sun

http://www.morningsun.net/stories/080603/obi_20030806015.shtml

SOURCE: The San Diego Union-Tribune On-line, August 7, 2003

GEORGE BAKER

BAKER, GEORGE "CLIFF" George "Cliff" Baker passed away suddenly on July 31, 2003 at Coronado Golf Course, his favorite place in the world. Cliff was born on May 1, 1937 to George and Wilma Baker. He was raised and schooled in Pittsburg, Kansas. He graduated from Kansas State Teachers College in 1959. Cliff spent the next 20 years in the Kansas City region. He left his position as Vice President of Marketing and Sales at United Computer Systems to start his own business, Applied Information Science. He sold this business in 1982, and relocated to San Diego. Here he spent the majority of his professional time as an independent sales and marketing consultant for a number of corporations. Cliff loved golf. He dedicated himself to the sport during his last few years. He enjoyed both the camaraderie of new friends, and the challenge of the game. Always entertaining and witty, Cliff was the life of the party. He felt that we were on this planet to enjoy life, and did his best to make this feeling a life's philosophy. Cliff is survived by his wife Eva, his daughter Carrie Baker Dodge, his stepchildren Angela McNeal and David Cardiff, and his grandchildren Kate and Jack Dodge. He will be loved and remembered by his family, and many, many friends. A celebration and remembrance of his life will be held at The Coronado Golf Course, 2000 Visalia Row, Coronado, California, on Sunday August 10 from 6-8 p.m. The family suggests donations to the San Diego County Jr. Golf Association, 3333 Camino Del Rio South, Suite 110, San Diego, Ca., 92108.

©2003 The Union Tribune Publishing Company
George 'Cliff' Baker

SAN DIEGO — George "Cliff" Baker, 66, of San Diego, died suddenly Thursday, July 31, 2003, at The Coronado Golf Course in Coronado, Calif.

He was born May 1, 1937, at Pittsburg, to George and Wilma Baker.

He was raised and schooled in Pittsburg.

He graduated from Pittsburg State University in 1959. He spent the next 20 years in the Kansas City area. He left his position as vice president of marketing and sales at United Computer Systems to start his own business, Applied Information Science. He sold this business in 1982 and relocated to San Diego, where he spent the majority of his professional time as an independent sales and marketing consultant for a number of corporations.

Survivors include his wife, Eva; one daughter, Carrie Baker Dodge, of San Diego; one stepdaughter, Angela McNeal, of San Diego; one stepson, David Cardiff, of Desoto, and two grandchildren.

A celebration and remembrance of his life is scheduled from 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday at The Coronado Golf Course, Coronado. Merkley-Mitchell Mortuary, San Diego, is handling arrangements.