PARSONS - Park “Clay” Batman, 35, Parsons, was pronounced dead at 8:45 Friday, March 22, 1991, in the emergency room of the Labette County Medical Center in Parsons. He had been in failing health for the past two years.

He was born on Nov. 2, 1955, at Independence, Kan to Bill and Marcian Fields Batman. He grew up in Independence and attended Lincoln Grade School and graduated from Independence High School in 1971. During high school, he received the black belt in Karate. He attended the Independence Junior College and then Pittsburg State University, graduating with a degree in mechanical engineering in 1985.

In 1985 he moved to Parsons and was employed with the Aero-Jet Ordnance, stationed at the Kansas Army Ammunitions Plant, from 1985 to 1987. In 1987, he began doing custom carpenter work, a vocation he had until 1989.

He married Louwana Kellogg on June 28, 1986, at Parsons.

Survivors include his wife of the home; one daughter, Tirsha Batman of Pamona, Calif; two stepsons, Rocky Kellogg II and Richard Kellogg, both of the home; one step […]
Deaths

Park ‘Clay’ Batman

PARSONS — Park “Clay” Batman, 35, of Parsons, was pronounced dead at 8:45 a.m. Friday, March 22, 1991, in the emergency room of the Labette County Medical Center in Parsons. He had been in failing health for the past two years.

He was born on Nov. 2, 1955, at Independence, Kan., to Bill and Marcean Fields Batman. He grew up in Independence and attended Lincoln Grade School and graduated from Independence High School in 1971. During high school, he received the black belt in Karate. He attended the Independence Junior College and then Pittsburg State University, graduating with a degree in mechanical engineering in 1985.

In 1985, he moved to Parsons and was employed with the Aero-Jet Ordnance, stationed at the Kansas Army Ammunition Plant, from 1985 to 1987. In 1987, he began doing custom carpenter work, a vocation he had until 1989.

He married Louwana Kellogg on June 28, 1986, at Parsons.

Survivors include his wife of the home; one daughter, Tirsha Batman of Pamona, Calif.; two stepsons, Rocky Kellogg II and Richard Kellogg, both of the home; one step-daughter, Becky Kellogg of the home; his father and stepmother, Bill and Marie Batman of Independence, Kan.; his mother, Marcean Batman, of Arkansas City, Kan.; three sisters, Vickie Crowell of London, England, Valorie Davis of Elk City; and Beverly Kisner of Tulsa, Okla.; one brother, Sam Batman of Manketo, Minn.; one stepsister, Marilyn Shephard of Wichita; and two stepbrothers, David Carroll of Atlanta, Ga., and Danny Carroll of Independence. He was preceded in death by one brother, Billy Chet Batman.

Services will be 2 p.m. Monday at the Burris-Carson-Wall Funeral Home in Parsons, with Richard Shouse and James Craig officiating. The family will receive friends from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home. Burial will be in the Harrisonville Cemetery, near Bolton, Kan.