Gene Paul Bartlett

He had been ill for two years and a patient in the nursing home for 10 days.

Mr. Bartlett was born Oct. 9, 1922, in Erwin, Mo., the son of Paul V. and Pearl Lynch Bartlett. He had resided in Oswego since 1987, moving from Pittsburg where he had lived most of his life.

He was a graduate of College High School in Pittsburg and attended Pittsburg State University for two years.

He was a veteran of World War II, serving in the Army and was a survivor of Pearl Harbor.

He was a carpenter and millwright most of his life. He worked in the maintenance department at Pittsburg State University for several years, retiring in 1985.

Membership was in the Baptist Church, Pittsburg Masonic Lodge No. 187, Mirza Temple of Pittsburg, Priestly Ridley American Legion Post No.35 of Cherokee and Veterans of Foreign Wars in Oswego.

Survivors include the wife of the home; one son, Richard P. Bartlett of rural Weir; one daughter, Cheryl Haynes of Opolis; three step-sons, Jerry Briggs of Covina, Calif., John Briggs of El Paso, Texas, and Elwyn Briggs of Bushton; one step-daughter Celinda Stricklan of Overland Park; 14 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents.

The body has been cremated. Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Lake Cemetery at Lamar with the Rev. Wayne Black, of First Christian Church of Pittsburg, officiating.

Flag-folding ceremonies will be conducted by Priestly Ridley American Legion Post No.35 of Cherokee and taps will be played by Jeremy McGee.

Friends may call at their convenience at the home of the daughter, Cheryl Haynes in Opolis.

Arrangements are by Bath-Naylor Funeral Home, 522 S. Broadway.
Gene Paul Bartlett

OSWEGO — Gene Paul Bartlett, 71, of rural Oswego, formerly of Pittsburg, died at 1:15 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 5, 1994, at Oswego Manor.

He had been ill for two years and a patient in the nursing home for 10 days.

Mr. Bartlett was born Oct. 9, 1922, in Erwin, Mo., the son of Paul V. and Pearl Lynch Bartlett. He had resided in Oswego since 1987, moving from Pittsburg where he had lived most of his life.

He was a graduate of College High School in Pittsburg and attended Pittsburg State University for two years.

He was a veteran of World War II, serving in the Army and was a survivor of Pearl Harbor.

He was a carpenter and millwright most of his life. He worked in the maintenance department at Pittsburg State University for several years, retiring in 1985.

Membership was in the Baptist Church, Pittsburg Masonic Lodge No. 187, Mirza Temple of Pittsburg, Priestly Ridley American Legion Post No. 35 of Cherokee and Veterans of Foreign Wars in Oswego.

Survivors include the wife of the home; one son, Richard P. Bartlett of rural Weir; one daughter, Cheryl Haynes of Opolis; three step-sons, Jerry Briggs of Covina, Calif., John Briggs of El Paso, Texas, and Elwyn Briggs of Bushton; one step-daughter, Celinda Stricklan of Overland Park; 14 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents.

The body has been cremated. Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Lake Cemetery at Lamar with the Rev. Wayne Black, of First Christian Church of Pittsburg, officiating.

Flag-folding ceremonies will be conducted by Priestly Ridley American Legion Post No. 35 of Cherokee and taps will be played by Jeremy McGee.

Friends may call at their convenience at the home of the daughter, Cheryl Haynes in Opolis.

Arrangements are by Bath-Naylor Funeral Home, 522 S. Broadway.