Funeral services for Mrs. Wilma Mibeck Belvin, 70, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday, April 20, at the First Indian Baptist Church. Rev. Bridge Chuckluck and Rev. Elliott Leitka will officiate.

Another service will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday, April 21, in Independence, Kan. at the Webb-Rodrick Funeral Home at 2 p.m.

Interment will be in the Mount Hope Cemetery under the direction of Cantrell Funeral Home.

A Wake Service will be conducted at 8:30 p.m. Thursday at the First Indian Baptist Church.

Mrs. Belvin died April 17 in the Okmulgee Memorial Hospital. She was born August 9, 1913 in Independence, Kansas, and spent the early years of her life there. She attended the Independence schools and later graduated from Pittsburg State University where she was a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, Music Fraternity. She taught school in Sedan and Independence and later Bacone College in Muskogee and elementary schools in Okmulgee.

In 1941 she was united in marriage to B. Frank Belvin. Together they attended Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia where she earned a degree in Sacred Music. She worked along with her husband as missionary to the Indians.

Mrs. Belvin was an active member of the First Indian Baptist Church, where she was organist, Wednesday Morning Music Club and the Retired Teachers Association.

She is survived by her husband, The Reverend Dr. Belvin of the home, 1729 E. 9th, Okmulgee; Mary Jane Rix of Seattle and one niece.

The family requests memorial gifts be made to First Indian Baptist Church of Okmulgee.
