Dr. James A. Bertone [B 1948]

TOPEKA - Dr. James A. Bertone, 56, Topeka, died Thursday, July 14, 1983, at Stormont-Vail Medical Center, Topeka, after a short illness.

He was born Nov. 15, 1927, at Frontenac to Tony and Gae Kittle Bertone. He attended elementary and high school and college in Pittsburg.

He was a 1951 graduate of the St. Louis University School of Medicine, where he was a member of Phi Chi medical fraternity. He interned at Menorah Medical Center, Kansas City, Mo.

From 1960 to 1961 Dr. Bertone was an assistant professor at Pittsburg State University. He worked 26 years at the Topeka State Hospital, and recently served as medical director there. He was also medical consultant to the Tanner Care Home, Topeka.

He was a World War II Medical Corps veteran.

Survivors include two sisters, Joye White of Topeka, and Mary Ann Dalton of St. Louis, and a brother, Thomas Bertone of Pennington, N. J.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Mount Hope Chapel, Topeka. Entombment will follow at Mount Hope Mausoleum. Friends may call from noon to 9 p.m. today at the Penwell-Gabel Funeral Home, Topeka.
Dr. James A. Bertone

TOPEKA — Dr. James A. Bertone, 56, Topeka, died Thursday, July 14, 1983, at Stormont-Vail Medical Center, Topeka, after a short illness.

He was born Nov. 15, 1927, at Frontenac to Tony and Gae Kittle Bertone. He attended elementary and high school and college in Pittsburg.

He was a 1951 graduate of the St. Louis University School of Medicine, where he was a member of Phi Chi medical fraternity. He interned at Menorah Medical Center, Kansas City, Mo.

From 1960 to 1961 Dr. Bertone was an assistant professor at Pittsburg State University. He worked 26 years at the Topeka State Hospital, and recently served as medical director there. He was also medical consultant to the Tanner Care Home, Topeka.

He was a World War II Medical Corps veteran.

Survivors include two sisters, Joye White of Topeka, and Mary Ann Dalton of St. Louis, and a brother, Thomas Bertone of Pennington, N.J.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Mount Hope Chapel, Topeka. Entombment will follow at Mount Hope Mausoleum. Friends may call from noon to 9 p.m. today at the Penwell-Gabel Funeral Home, Topeka.