Antonio P. 'Tony' Bettega

BAXTER SPRINGS - Antonio P. "Tony" Bettega, 85, of Baxter Springs, died Monday, May 13, 1996, at St. John's Regional Medical Center at Joplin, Mo.

Mr. Bettega was born Feb. 7, 1911, at West Mineral to Frank and Guilia Bettega. He moved to Treece as a child, living there until 1949, when he moved to Baxter Springs. He graduated from Picher, Okla., High School and received a degree in physical education from Kansas State Teachers College, now Pittsburg State University, where he participated in sports.

He married Wilma Treece on July 12, 1932, at Oswego. She survives.

Mr. Bettega was a social worker for Cherokee County, later becoming purchasing agent at Consolidated Supply Co., then at Eagle Picher Co., until his retirement.

He was a member of the First Christian Church of Baxter Springs, where he served as a deacon.

Additional survivors include a son, Van Bettega of Yates Center; a daughter, Toni Wolkar of Baxter Springs; a sister, Lena Bradford of Columbus; and six grandchildren.

Services will be 10 a.m. Thursday at the First Christian Church of Baxter Springs. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. today at the Abbott Funeral Home.
Antonio P. 'Tony' Bettega

BAXTER SPRINGS — Antonio P. “Tony” Bettega, 85, of Baxter Springs, died Monday, May 13, 1996, at St. John’s Regional Medical Center at Joplin, Mo.

Mr. Bettega was born Feb. 7, 1911, at West Mineral to Frank and Giulia Bettega. He moved to Treece as a child, living there until 1949, when he moved to Baxter Springs. He graduated from Picher, Okla., High School and received a degree in physical education from Kansas State Teachers College, now Pittsburg State University, where he participated in sports.

He married Wilma Treece on July 12, 1932, at Oswego. She survives.

Mr. Bettega was a social worker for Cherokee County, later becoming purchasing agent at Consolidated Supply Co., then at Eagle Picher Co., until his retirement.

He was a member of the First Christian Church of Baxter Springs, where he served as a deacon.

Additional survivors include a son, Van Bettega of Yates Center; a daughter, Toni Wolkar of Baxter Springs; a sister, Lena Bradford of Columbus; and six grandchildren.

Services will be 10 a.m. Thursday at the First Christian Church of Baxter Springs. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. today at the Abbott Funeral Home.