Deaths

Arlie Johnson Bevans [BS 1927; died February 16, 1975]

MULBERRY - Arlie Johnson Bevans, 70, formerly of Pittsburg, died Sunday in the North Kansas City Memorial Hospital. He was rushed to the hospital by his twin brother, C. F. Bevans.

Mr. Bevins [sic] was born in Mulberry on April 5, 1904. After receiving his early education in the Mulberry school system, he attended Kansas State College of Pittsburg where he received his M.A. and B.A. degrees. Mr. Bevans taught in and was principal of the Mulberry Grade Schools for many years. He also taught in Pittsburg before moving to California where he taught for seven more years.

Mr. Bevans then became a salesman for a school supply company until returning to Pittsburg because of failing health. He had recently moved to the home of his brother in Kansas City because of his health.

Mr. Bevans' mother and father and a sister died earlier. He is survived by his brother, C. F. Bevans of Kansas City.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Berkey Chapel, with the Rev. Oliver Rosas officiating. Burial will be in the Rosebank Cemetery. The family will receive friends after 1 p.m. today until time for the services Wednesday.
Deaths

Arlie Johnson Bevans

MULBERRY—Arlie Johnson Bevans, 70, formerly of Pittsburg, died Sunday in the North Kansas City Memorial Hospital. He was rushed to the hospital by his twin brother, C. F. Bevans.

Mr. Bevins was born in Mulberry on April 5, 1904. After receiving his early education in the Mulberry school system, he attended Kansas State College of Pittsburg where he received his M.A. and B.A. degrees. Mr. Bevans taught in and was principal of the Mulberry Grade Schools for many years. He also taught in Pittsburg before moving to California where he taught for seven more years.

Mr. Bevans then became a salesman for a school supply company until returning to Pittsburg because of failing health. He had recently moved to the home of his brother in Kansas City because of his health.

Mr. Bevans' mother and father and a sister died earlier. He is survived by his brother, C. F. Bevans of Kansas City.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Berkey Chapel, with the Rev. Oliver Rosas officiating. Burial will be in the Rosebank Cemetery. The family will receive friends after 1 p.m. today until time for the services Wednesday.