Services were in Herington, Kan., Wednesday for R'Leigh Bell, 71, a former president of the Wyandotte County Teachers Association, who died last Sunday in Herington after a long illness.

Mr. Bell retired in 1972 after teaching 18 years at Turner High School. While there, he headed one of the largest driver education programs in Kansas, and he had formerly taught driver training during the summers at Wyandotte High School.

Born in Norcatur, Kan., Mr. Bell also taught at Cedar Bluffs, Oberlin, Norton and Herington, all in Kansas. He returned to live in Herington after he retired.

Mr. Bell held a bachelor's degree from Fort Hays State College and a master's degree from Kansas State College of Pittsburg, now Pittsburg State University. He was a member of the National Education Association, the National Retired Teachers Association, and Epsilon Pi Tau, international honor society of industrial arts. He was a World War II Navy veteran.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Lucille Bell of the home; two sons, James O. Bell, Los Angeles, and Kenneth L. Bell, Vacaville, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Shirley Herpich, Herington; three sisters, Mrs. Alice West, Oberlin; Mrs. Helen New, Denver; and Mrs. Grace Reeves, Almena, Kan.; five brothers, Loren Bell, McPherson, Kan.; Brice Bell, Hood River, Ore.; Jerald Bell, Atwood, Kan.; John Bell, Alamogordo, N.M.; and George Bell, Castle Rock, Colo.; and, eight grandchildren.
Services were in Herington, Kan., Wednesday for R'Leigh Bell, 71, a former president of the Wyandotte County Teachers Association, who died last Sunday in Herington after a long illness.

Mr. Bell retired in 1972 after teaching 18 years at Turner High School. While there, he headed one of the largest driver education programs in Kansas, and he had formerly taught driver training during the summers at Wyandotte High School.

Born in Norcatur, Kan., Mr. Bell also taught at Cedar Bluffs, Oberlin, Norton and Herington, all in Kansas. He returned to live in Herington after he retired.

Mr. Bell held a bachelor's degree from Fort Hays State College and a master's degree from Kansas State College of Pittsburg, now Pittsburg State University. He was a member of the National Education Association, the National Retired Teachers Association, and Epsilon Pi Tau, international honor society of industrial arts. He was a World War II Navy veteran.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Lucille Bell of the home; two sons, James O. Bell, Los Angeles, and Kenneth L. Bell, Vacaville, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Shirley Herpich, Herington; three sisters, Mrs. Alice West, Oberlin; Mrs. Helen New, Denver; and Mrs. Grace Reeves, Almena, Kan.; five brothers, Loren Bell, McPherson, Kan.; Brice Bell, Hood River, Ore.; Jer-ald Bell, Atwood, Kan.; John Bell, Alamogordo, N.M.; and George Bell, Castle Rock, Colo.; and eight grandchildren.