Melvin J. Binford, 81, of St. Petersburg, Fla., former Wichita and Haviland resident, former Friends University assistant to the president, Wichita University coach and athletic director 1942-48, former football and basketball coach for El Dorado, McPherson and Hutchinson junior colleges, died Wednesday. Service 10 a.m. Friday, Garden Sanctuary Inc. Cemetery and Funeral Home, Seminole, Fla.

Survivors: wife, Doris H.; sons, Charles M. of Sydney, Australia, Dr. Donald of St. Petersburg; brothers, Harold of Gunnison, Colo., Lindley of Portland, Ore.; sister, Margaret Edens of Winfield; five grandchildren; one great-grandchild.
MELVIN J. BINFORD, 81, of St. Petersburg, Fla., former Wichita and Haviland resident, former Friends University assistant to the president, Wichita University coach and athletic director 1942-48, former football and basketball coach for El Dorado, McPherson and Hutchinson junior colleges, died Wednesday. Service 10 a.m. Friday, Garden Sanctuary Inc. Cemetery and Funeral Home, Seminole, Fla.

Survivors: wife, Doris H.; sons, Charles M. of Sydney, Australia, Dr. Donald of St. Petersburg; brothers, Harold of Gunnison, Colo., Lindley of Portland, Ore.; sister, Margaret Edens of Winfield; five grandchildren; one great-grandchild.