Obituaries

Willard R. Binns, 74, Williamsburg, died Wednesday, Dec. 3, 1980 at his home. He suffered an apparent heart attack. He was a former Superintendent here.

He was born May 1, 1906, at Williamsburg, the son of Thomas and Jessie Purvint Binns. He was graduated from Williamsburg High School, attended Ottawa University and was graduated from Pittsburg State Teachers College with bachelor's and master's degrees.

Binns taught for more than 40 years in Franklin County, including a long tenure at Williamsburg High School.

He was a member of the United Methodist Church, Sandano Chapter No.194 of the Order of the Eastern Star, Anchor Lodge No.224, AF & AM and was a charter member and first president of Lions Club, all of Williamsburg.

He was married to Dorothy Moore, June 4, 1932, at Bronson. She survives.

Other survivors include two sons, W. Robert and Joe D., both of St. Louis; a brother, Clifford L. Binns, Hugoton; and four grandchildren.

Services were at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 6, 1000 at Williamsburg United Methodist Church. Burial was in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Williamsburg. Memorial contributions may be made to the United Methodist Church in Williamsburg.
Obituaries

Willard R. Binns

Willard Russell Binns, 77, Williamsburg, died Wednesday, Dec. 3, 1980 at his home. He suffered an apparent heart attack. He was a former superintendent here.

He was born May 1, 1906, a Williamsburg, the son of Thomas and Jessie Purvine Binns. He was graduated from Williamsburg High School, attended Ottawa University and was graduated from Pittsburgh State Teachers College with bachelor’s and master’s degrees.

Binns taught for more than 40 years in Franklin County, including a long tenure at Williamsburg High School.

He was a member of the United Methodist Church, Sandano Chapter No. 194 of the Order of the Eastern Star, Anchor Lodge No. 224, AF & AM and was a charter member and first president of Lions Club, all of Williamsburg.

He was married to Dorothy Moore, June 4, 1932, at Bronson. She survives.

Other survivors include two sons, W. Robert and Joe D., both of St. Louis; a brother, Clifford L. Binns, Hugoton; and four grandchildren.

Services were at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 6, 1980 at Williamsburg United Methodist Church. Burial was in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Williamsburg. Memorial contributions may be made to the United Methodist Church in Williamsburg.