Harry C. Bishop

IOLA - Services for Harry C. Bishop Jr., 55, of Iola, will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Friday at the Calvary United Methodist Church in Iola. Rev. Arthur Mix will officiate, with burial to be in the Highland Cemetery at Iola.

Mr. Bishop, administrator in the Independence school system from 1956 until becoming assistant superintendent [sic] of schools at Iola in 1979, died late Monday at St. Francis Hospital in Wichita, where he had been admitted for diagnostic treatment last weekend.

The family suggests memorials in his name to a scholarship fund at Allen County Community College. Memorials may be mailed to the Waugh-Yokum Funeral Home, 16 N. Buckeye, Iola, which is in charge of arrangements.

Harry C. Bishop Jr. was born Oct. 19, 1925 at Iola, the son of Harry C. and Shirley (Slack) Bishop. He attended Iola schools.

Mr. Bishop served with the United States Army during World War II and following graduation from Allen County Community College, he married Carol Adams on Sept. 25, 1949 at Iola.

After receiving bachelor and masters degrees from Pittsburg State University, he worked for school systems in Fredonia, Coffeyville and Eureka before moving to Independence in 1956.

Mr. Bishop was a member of the Masonic Lodge, the Iola Rotary Club, the Elks Lodge and the Allen County Country Club, as well as a member in numerous professional organizations. He also belonged to the First United Methodist Church at Independence.
