Charles Lee Bloomcamp
[BSEd 59 – Technology Education; MS 82 – Secondary Teaching]

COFFEYVILLE - Charles Lee Bloomcamp, 57, of Coffeyville, died Monday, Dec. 11, 1995, at Coffeyville Regional Medical Center.

Mr. Bloomcamp was born Jan. 8, 1938 at Hepler, to Cletus F. and Esther M. Viets Bloomcamp. He graduated from Hepler High School before graduating with a Bachelor of Science Degree in education from Pittsburg State University. He received his Master of Science Degree in 1982.

In August of 1959, he began employment for U.S.D. 445 as a shop instructor at Roosevelt Junior High School. In 1973, he transferred to Field Kindley Memorial High School to teach drafting classes. For many years, until his illness forced him to retire, Mr. Bloomcamp was an assistant football and basketball coach at the high school. During the summers he worked for the school district doing carpenter work.

He married Thora Coester Aug. 5, 1962, at Girard.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church at Coffeyville, Boy Scouts and the Boy Scout Merit Badge Council.

Survivors include his wife of the home; his mother of Brazilton; two sons, James L. Bloomcamp and Steven D. Bloomcamp, both of Pittsburg; two daughters, Nancy L. Bloomcamp of Coffeyville and, Janet E. Mayhew of Pittsburg; and two brothers, Francis Bloomcamp of Williamsburg, Va., and Richard Bloomcamp of Brazilton.

Services will be 1 p.m. today at First United Methodist Church at Coffeyville. Burial will be 3:30 p.m. at the Girard Cemetery at Girard.
COFFEYVILLE — Charles Lee Bloomcamp, 57, of Coffeyville, died Monday, Dec. 11, 1995, at Coffeyville Regional Medical Center.

Mr. Bloomcamp was born Jan. 8, 1938, at Hepler, to Cletus F. and Esther M. Viets Bloomcamp. He graduated from Hepler High School before graduating with a Bachelor of Science Degree in education from Pittsburg State University. He received his Master of Science Degree in 1982.

In August of 1959, he began employment for U.S.D. 445 as a shop instructor at Roosevelt Junior High School. In 1973, he transferred to Field Kindley Memorial High School to teach drafting classes. For many years, until his illness forced him to retire, Mr. Bloomcamp was an assistant football and basketball coach at the high school. During the summers he worked for the school district doing carpenter work.

He married Thora Coester Aug. 5, 1962, at Girard.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church at Coffeyville, Boy Scouts and the Boy Scout Merit Badge Council.

Survivors include his wife of the home; his mother of Brazilton; two sons, James L. Bloomcamp and Steven D. Bloomcamp, both of Pittsburg; two daughters, Nancy L. Bloomcamp of Coffeyville and Janet E. Mayhew of Pittsburg; and two brothers, Francis Bloomcamp of Williamsburg, Va., and Richard Bloomcamp of Brazilton.

Services will be 1 p.m. today at the First United Methodist Church at Coffeyville. Burial will be 3:30 p.m. at the Girard Cemetery at Girard.