Arthur W. Braden [MS - 1974; Died May 25, 1978]

Arthur W. Braden, 76, 1314 S. Broadway, died unexpectedly at 12:30 p.m. Thursday at his home.

He was born in Amoret, Mo., in 1901, moving later to Harrisonville, Mo. In 1935 he came to Pittsburg. He was a telegraph operator for the Missouri Pacific railroad for many years and later was agent for the same railroad in Joplin. He retired in 1966.

In 1934, Mr. Braden received a bachelor's degree from Central Missouri State University at Warrensburg. In 1975, after retirement, he won national attention when he received his master's degree from Pittsburg State University. He continued his education, attending a variety of classes at PSU. Many of his poems were published in the student newspaper.

He married Lola Perry in 1935 in Nevada, Mo. She survives at the home. He was a member of the South Broadway Baptist Church and taught Sunday School for many years. He was a member of the Golden Rails and Kappa Delta Pi, an honorary educational society.

Survivors also include a brother, Jesse L. Braden, Pleasant Hill, Mo., and two nieces.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the South Broadway Baptist Church, with they [sic] Rev. Marvin Alley officiating. Burial will be in Balltown Cemetery, Horton, Mo., near Nevada. Friends may call at the home.
Arthur W. Braden, 76, 1314 S. Broadway, died unexpectedly at 12:30 p.m. Thursday at his home.

He was born in Amoret, Mo., in 1901, moving later to Harrisonville, Mo. In 1935 he came to Pittsburg. He was a telegraph operator for the Missouri Pacific railroad for many years and later was agent for the same railroad in Joplin. He retired in 1966.

In 1934, Mr. Braden received a bachelor’s degree from Central Missouri State University at Warrensburg. In 1975, after retirement, he won national attention when he received his master’s degree from Pittsburg State University. He continued his education, attending a variety of classes at PSU. Many of his poems were published in the student newspaper.

He married Lola Perry in 1935 in Nevada, Mo. She survives at the home. He was a member of the South Broadway Baptist Church and taught Sunday School for many years. He was a member of the Golden Rails and Kappa Delta Pi, an honorary educational society.

Survivors also include a brother, Jesse L. Braden, Pleasant Hill, Mo., and two nieces.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the South Broadway Baptist Church, with Rev. Marvin Aliley officiating. Burial will be in Balltown Cemetery, Horton, Mo., near Nevada. Friends may call at the home.