John Albert Brisbin [BSEd – 1947, Education]

LAMAR, Mo. -- John Albert Brisbin, 77, of Lamar, Mo., died at 7:04 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 20, 1996, at Barton County Memorial Hospital in Lamar after a sudden illness.

He was born Oct. 25, 1918, at Cherokee to John Emerson and Ivy Julia Newport Brisbin. He lived in the Barton County, Mo., area since 1949, moving from Pittsburg. He graduated from Pittsburg State University.

He married Helen Corinne Coslet at Pittsburg.

Mr. Brisbin was a veteran of World War II.

He was a county director A.S.C.S [sic] for 16 years. He retired in 1979.

He was a member of the First Christian Church in Lamar, a 30-year member of the Lamar Lions Club and a long-time member of the National Rifle Association.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Anthony Brisbin of Lamar, and Joe Brisbin of Lamar; a daughter, Nancy Tabhan of Liberal, Mo.; five brothers, James Brisbin, Bill Brisbin, Larry Brisbin, Vernon Brisbin and Steve Brisbin, all of Cherokee; three sisters, Mary Watson, Louise Brooks and Gracella Letchworth, all of Cherokee; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by two brothers and a sister.

Services will be 2 p.m. today at the First Christian Church in Lamar, with the Rev. Doug Oakes officiating. Burial will be at the Nashville, Mo., Cemetery. Visitation will be from 1 to 2 p.m. today at the church. The casket will be closed.
LAMAR, Mo. — John Albert Brisbin, 77, of Lamar, Mo., died at 7:04 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 20, 1996, at Barton County Memorial Hospital in Lamar after a sudden illness.

He was born Oct. 25, 1918, at Cherokee to John Emerson and Ivy Julia Newport Brisbin. He lived in the Barton County, Mo., area since 1949, moving from Pittsburg. He graduated from Pittsburg State University.

He married Helen Corinne Coslet at Pittsburg.

Mr. Brisbin was a veteran of World War II.

He was a county director A.S.C.S for 16 years. He retired in 1979.

He was a member of the First Christian Church in Lamar, a 30-year member of the Lamar Lions Club and a long-time member of the National Rifle Association.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Anthony Brisbin of Lamar, and Joe Brisbin of Lamar; a daughter, Nancy Tabhan of Liberal, Mo.; five brothers, James Brisbin, Bill Brisbin, Larry Brisbin, Vernon Brisbin and Steve Brisbin, all of Cherokee; three sisters, Mary Watson, Louise Brooks and Gracella Letchworth, all of Cherokee; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by two brothers and a sister.

Services will be 2 p.m. today at the First Christian Church in Lamar, with the Rev. Doug Oakes officiating. Burial will be at the Nashville, Mo., Cemetery. Visitation will be from 1 to 2 p.m. today at the church. The casket will be closed.