WAKEENY, Kan. -- Ronald O. (Ronnie) Brooks, 24, Grinnell, Kan., a Pittsburg native, was killed in a car-truck accident Thursday morning six miles east of WaKeeney.

Mr. Brooks was born March 14, 1948 in Pittsburg, and lived here until moving to Grinnell in 1971. He was a, 1966 graduate of Colgan High School, and also a graduate of Kansas State College. Mr. Brooks was a mathematics teacher and assistant coach at the Grinnell High School. He was married to Christie Dellasega. Mr. Brooks was a member of the Catholic Church.

Survivors include the widow; a son, Timothy Charles Brooks, of the home; his parents, Mrs. Columbia Warren, Scottsbluff, Ariz., and Raymond L. Brooks, Baxter Springs; a twin brother, Raymond L. Brooks Jr., Route 2, Pittsburg; and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Brooks, Route 2, Pittsburg.

The body will be brought to the Quinn Funeral Home for arrangements.
Ronald Brooks

WAKEENEY, Kan.—Ronald O. (Ronnie) Brooks, 24, Grinnell, Kan., a Pittsburg native, was killed in a car-truck accident Thursday morning six miles east of WaKeeney.

Mr. Brooks was born March 14, 1948 in Pittsburg, and lived here until moving to Grinnell in 1971. He was a 1966 graduate of Colgan High School, and also a graduate of Kansas State College. Mr. Brooks was a mathematics teacher and assistant coach at the Grinnell High School. He was married to Christie Dellasega. Mr. Brooks was a member of the Catholic Church.

Survivors include the widow; a son, Timothy Charles Brooks, of the home; his parents, Mrs. Columbia Warren, Scottsbluff, Ariz., and Raymond L. Brooks, Baxter Springs; a twin brother, Raymond L. Brooks Jr., Route 2, Pittsburg; and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Brooks, Route 2, Pittsburg.

The body will be brought to the Quinn Funeral Home for arrangements. 2955