Mrs. Beulah Marie Brown of Edwardsville, a former Council Grove resident, died Wednesday at a Kansas City hospital. She was 75-years old.

She was born June 23, 1910, in Council Grove, to Frank H. and Mae Eliza Totten Manning.

Following in the footsteps of her father, who was a former teacher and county superintendent here, she graduated from the University of Kansas in 1931 with a degree in social sciences. She later earned a masters degree from Kansas State College – Pittsburg in guidance and counseling, and also attended Northwestern University, Columbia University, Denver University, Kansas State University and Kansas State Teachers College - Emporia.

Her first teaching job was at Dunlap in 1931. She taught music at White City, junior high school at Netawaka, English and social science at Frankfort and then, in 1945, moved to Emporia to teach music and social studies in the junior high, and also was appointed dean of girls.

After working one year at Boeing, she married and moved to Joplin, Mo., where she taught biology for 14 years, and was dean of girls and counselor. She began work as Lawrence High School counselor in 1960, worked in guidance and pupil personnel services for the State Department of Education in 1965 and 1966, and became director of guidance in 1967 at Bonnor Springs, where she remained until retiring in 1975.

She was a member of the First Christian Church of Bonnor Springs, Delta Kappa Gamma education sorority, American Personnel and Guidance Association, Kansas Personnel and Guidance Association, American School Counselors Association, and National Education Association and K-NEA.

She was past president of the Kansas School Counselors Association, Bonnor Springs NEA, and Bonnor Springs Business and Professional Women. She was the Bonnor Springs BPW’s “Woman of the Year” in 1975.

Survivors include one son - Frank A. Brown, Lenexa; a sister - Mrs. Frances Churchman, Augusta; and one granddaughter.

Funeral service will be at 10 a.m., Saturday, at Alden-Harrington Chapel, Bonnor Springs. A graveside service is planned at 2 p.m., Saturday, in Greenwood Cemetery, Council Grove.

Friends may call from 7-8 o'clock, tonight, at the chapel in Bonnor Springs.

Memorials have been established with the First Christian Church of Bonnor Springs, and Cancer Action, Inc., Kansas City.
