Phoenix Brown

TULSA, Okla. - Phoenix Brown, 84, of Tulsa, Okla, died Friday, Dec. 5, 2003, at Ambassador Nursing Home in Tulsa.

He was born Nov. 19, 1919, at Kenfic, Okla., to Joseph and Emma (Walden) Brown.

He was raised in the Coalgate, Okla., area. He moved to Okema, Okla., and was in the C.C. camp at Sulphur, Okla. He attended college at Murray State in Tishmingo, Okla., Southeastern College in Durant, Okla., and Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Okla.

He attended the Christian Church and New Haven Methodist Church of Tulsa. He was a Mason and a Shriner and a member of the Kansas Teachers Association, the National Teachers Association, and the Green Country Campers Club.

He married Hazel Cox on May 20, 1961, at Vinita. She survives of the home.

He was preceded in death by parents; one sister, Ruby Crumply; and three brothers, Bob Brown, Ryfus Brown and Harlan Brown.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at First Baptist Church in Coalgate with the Rev. Matt Smith officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Cowley-Krien Funeral Home of Sulphur.

©Copyright 2003 The Morning Sun

http://www.morningsun.net/stories/120803/obi_20031208019.shtml
Phoenix Brown

He was born Nov. 19, 1919, at Kenfia, Okla., to Joseph and Emma (Walden) Brown.

He was raised in the Coalgate, Okla., area. He moved to Okema, Okla., and was in the C.C. camp at Sulphur, Okla. He attended college at Murray State in Tishmingo, Okla., Southeastern College in Durant, Okla., and Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Okla.

He attended the Christian Church and New Haven Methodist Church of Tulsa. He was a Mason and a Shriner and a member of the Kansas Teachers Association, the National Teachers Association, and the Green Country Campers Club.

He married Hazel Cox on May 20, 1961, at Vinita. She survives of the home.

He was preceded in death by parents; one sister, Ruby Crumpl; and three brothers, Bob Brown, Ryfus Brown and Harlan Brown.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at First Baptist Church in Coalgate with the Rev. Matt Smith officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Cowley-Krien Funeral Home of Sulphur.