Dr. William I. Bray

Dr. William I. Bray, 78, of 1904 S. English, died at 9:10 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 20, 1994 at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Kansas City, Mo. He had been ill several months and entered the hospital Sept. 1.

He was born Aug. 26, 1916 at Elkins, Ark., to Otto and Stella Ledbetter Bray. He attended schools in Arkansas and received his B.S., M.A. and Ed.D. degrees from the University of Arkansas. He came to Pittsburg in 1957 and was a professor in the administrative and curriculum department at Pittsburg State University until his retirement in 1985.

He married Maurine Calhoun Nov. 21, 1941. She preceded him in death Feb. 3, 1982.

Dr. Bray was a veteran of World War II, serving in the Army in Austria. He also served in the Korean War.

Membership was held in the South Broadway Baptist Church, the Lion's Club, and the Phi Delta Kappa Fraternity.

Survivors include two daughters, Wanda Ebling of Muskogee, Okla., and Debra Herbener of Wheeling, W. Va.; a sister, Florence Doss of Fayetteville, Ark.; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He was preceded in death by his wife, a daughter, Lila Berry, and a sister, Bertie Smith.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Monday at the South Broadway Baptist Church with the Rev. George Powers officiating. Burial will be in Highland Park Cemetery, with the flagfolding services conducted at grave side by the Benjamin A. Fuller Post No.64 of the Pittsburg American Legion. The family will receive friends from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Sunday in the Brenner Chapel. Friends may call after 10 a.m. Sunday. The family will be at the home of Dr. Bray's granddaughter, Paula Berry of 732 E. 20th St. Arrangements are under the direction of the Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth St., Pittsburg.
Dr. William I. Bray

Dr. William I. Bray, 78, of 1904 S. English, died at 9:10 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 20, 1994 at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Kansas City, Mo. He had been ill several months and entered the hospital Sept. 1.

He was born Aug. 26, 1916 at Elkins, Ark., to Otto and Stella Ledbetter Bray. He attended schools in Arkansas and received his B.S., M.A. and Ed.D. degrees from the University of Arkansas. He came to Pittsburg in 1957 and was a professor in the administrative and curriculum department at Pittsburg State University until his retirement in 1985.

He married Maurine Calhoun Nov. 21, 1941. She preceded him in death Feb. 3, 1982.

Dr. Bray was a veteran of World War II, serving in the Army in Austria. He also served in the Korean War.

Membership was held in the South Broadway Baptist Church, the Lion's Club, and the Phi Delta Kappa Fraternity.

Survivors include two daughters, Wanda Ebling of Muskogee, Okla., and Debra Herbenr of Wheeling, W.Va.; a sister, Florence Doss of Fayetteville, Ark.; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He was preceded in death by his wife, a daughter, Lila Berry, and a sister, Bertie Smith.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Monday at the South Broadway Baptist Church with the Rev. George Powers officiating. Burial will be in Highland Park Cemetery, with the flag folding services conducted at graveside by the Benjamin A. Fuller Post No. 64 of the Pittsburg American Legion. The family will receive friends from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Sunday in the Brenner Chapel. Friends may call after 10 a.m. Sunday. The family will be at the home of Dr. Bray's granddaughter, Paula Berry of 732 E. 20th St. Arrangements are under the direction of the Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth St., Pittsburg.