Judith 'Judy' Veatch Brewster

She was born Jan. 13, 1930, at Pittsburg, to Marjorie Braidwood and Dr. Harry J. Veatch. She grew up in Pittsburg, and graduated with honors from the University of Kansas with bachelor's degrees in fine arts and German.

She was a professional Girl Scout and troop leader in Oklahoma City and in Amarillo. She also worked as a legal secretary at Golden, Colo. After retirement the Brewsters moved to Fort Collins, Colo., and returned to Amarillo in November of 2000.

She was active with the Methodist church and taught Kerygma Bible studies for the Presbyterian Church at Golden. She was a student of theology and Bible history.

She is survived by her husband; her daughter, Mindy Briggs of Amarillo; her son, Art Brewster of Katy, Texas; her sister, Joan Hankammer of Topeka; four grandchildren; a niece and a nephew.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Services will be at 11 a.m. today at Paramount Terrace Christian Church, with Rev. Scott Greer, pastor and Rev. Bob Schroeder officiating. Burial will be private. Arrangements are under the direction of Boxwell Brothers Funeral Directors.

©Copyright 2004 The Morning Sun
http://www.morningsun.net/stories/060504/obi_20040605039.shtml
Judith ‘Judy’ Veatch Brewster

She was born Jan. 13, 1930, at Pittsburg, to Marjorie Braidwood and Dr. Harry J. Veatch. She grew up in Pittsburg, and graduated with honors from the University of Kansas with bachelor’s degrees in fine arts and German.

She was a professional Girl Scout and troop leader in Oklahoma City and in Amarillo. She also worked as a legal secretary at Golden, Colo. After retirement the Brewsters moved to Fort Collins, Colo., and returned to Amarillo in November of 2000.

She was active with the Methodist church and taught Kerygma Bible studies for the Presbyterian Church at Golden. She was a student of theology and Bible history.

She is survived by her husband; her daughter, Mindy Briggs of Amarillo; her son, Art Brewster of Katy, Texas; her sister, Joan Hankammer of Topeka; four grandchildren; a niece and a nephew.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Services will be at 11 a.m. today at Paramount Terrace Christian Church, with the Rev. Scott Greer, pastor, and the Rev. Bob Schroeder officiating. Burial will be private. Arrangements are under the direction of Boxwell Brothers Funeral Directors.