Deaths

Ollie G. Buck

Ollie G. Buck, 70, of Hugo and a former Bartlesville resident, died at 8:30 p.m. Friday at his residence.

Memorial services for Mr. Buck will be 2 p.m. on Wednesday at Redeemer Lutheran Church with Gilbert Becker, Pastor Emeritus, officiating. Memorial services and cremation arrangements are under the direction of the Stumpff Funeral Home.

Mr. Buck was born Oct. 31, 1927, in Picher to Oliver F. and Alfa A. (Biddlecome) Buck. He was reared and received his education in Baxter Springs, Kan., graduating from high school there in 1945. He then attended Kansas State Teachers College at Pittsburg, Kan., and received his bachelor's degree in 1949. Mr. Buck taught band at N. E. O. A. & M. Jr. College in Miami before entering the United States Army in 1950. He served in the 4th Division Band until his Honorable Discharge in 1952, he was part of the first NATO troops to be sent to Europe. After his military service Mr. Buck furthered his education at Kansas State Teachers College receiving his master's degree in science. Upon graduation he was employed with Phillips Petroleum Co. as a senior research chemist from February 1955 until his retirement in 1987. After retirement Mr. Buck continued to work with Phillips Petroleum Co. as a consultant for an additional five years. Mr. Buck married Sue Crowley on Feb. 23, 1980, in Bartlesville. Mr. and Mrs. Buck moved to Mansfield, Texas, in 1993 and opened a family law practice where he worked until 1996, at which time they moved to Hugo. Mr. Buck was a member of Redeemer Lutheran Church in Bartlesville for many years.

Survivors by his wife, Sue Buck of the family home in Hugo; one daughter, Jo Gayle Schell and her husband Mark of Tulsa; a son, Bryan Harjo of Bartlesville; a brother, Carl W. Buck of Swartz Creek, Mich.; a sister, LaVonn Coppenbarger of Whitewater, Wis.; a granddaughter, Grace Schell; his mother-in-law, Ilene Crowley of the family home in Hugo; and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Buck was preceded in death by his parents, and a son Anthony K. Buck.
Deaths

Ollie G. Buck

Ollie G. Buck, 70, of Hugo and a former Bartlesville resident, died at 8:30 p.m. Friday at his residence.

Memorial services for Mr. Buck will be 2 p.m. on Wednesday at Redeemer Lutheran Church with Gilbert Becker, Pastor Emeritus, officiating. Memorial services and cremation arrangements are under the direction of the Stumpff Funeral Home.

Mr. Buck was born Oct. 31, 1927, in Picher to Oliver F. and Alfa A. (Biddlecome) Buck. He was reared and received his education in Baxter Springs, Kan., graduating from high school there in 1945. He then attended Kansas State Teachers College at Pittsburg, Kan., and received his bachelor's degree in 1949. Mr. Buck taught band at N. E. O. A. & M. Jr. College in Miami before entering the United States Army in 1950. He served in the 4th Division Band until his Honorable Discharge in 1952, he was part of the first NATO troops to be sent to Europe. After his military service Mr. Buck furthered his education at Kansas State Teachers College receiving his master's degree in science. Upon graduation he was employed with Phillips Petroleum Co. as a senior research chemist from February 1955 until his retirement in 1987. After retirement Mr. Buck continued to work with Phillips Petroleum Co. as a consultant for an additional five years. Mr. Buck married Sue Crowley on Feb. 23, 1980, in Bartlesville. Mr. and Mrs. Buck moved to Mansfield, Texas, in 1993 and opened a family law practice where he worked until 1996, at which time they moved to Hugo. Mr. Buck was a member of Redeemer Lutheran Church in Bartlesville for many years.

Survivors by his wife, Sue Buck of the family home in Hugo; one daughter, Jo Gayle Schell and her husband Mark of Tulsa; a son, Bryan Harjo of Bartlesville; a brother, Carl W. Buck of Swartz Creek, Mich.; a sister, LaVonn Coppenbarger of Whitewater, Wis.; a grand- daughter, Grace Schell; his mother-inlaw, Ilene Crowley of the family home in Hugo; and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Buck was preceded in death by his parents, and a son Anthony K. Buck.