Shirley Ann Buck

Shirley Ann Buck, born Nov. 25, 1927, Kansas City, Mo. lost her 50-year battle with M.S. Oct. 29, 2003 in San Rafael, Calif. She was a graduate of Webb City High School, Joplin Jr. College and Pittsburg State Teachers College where she studied music and psychology. As a devoted mother, she raised two children in Bartlesville, Okla.

Surviving is her daughter, Gayle who lives in Tulsa, Okla. with her husband, Mark and their two daughters, Grace and Abby. Her son, Tony preceded her in death in 1994.

Shirley rode her bike to music lessons, carrying her cello on her hip. She went on to play in the Bartlesville Symphony and was a dedicated teacher. President of the Bartlesville Physically Handicapped Club, she was honored for her work by Pilot International. A lifelong Methodist, her faith sustained her, music was her solace and family her joy.

A Memorial service will be held at Boston Avenue Church on Friday, November 14 at 4 p.m.

Donations may be made to Meals on Wheels.
Shirley Ann Buck

Shirley Ann Buck, born Nov. 25, 1927, Kansas City, Mo. lost her 50-year battle with M.S. Oct. 29, 2003 in San Rafael, Calif.

She was a graduate of Webb City High School, Joplin Jr. College and Pittsburg State Teachers College where she studied music and psychology.

As a devoted mother, she raised two children in Bartlesville, Okla.

Surviving is her daughter, Gayle who lives in Tulsa, Okla. with her husband, Mark and their two daughters, Grace and Abby. Her son, Tony preceded her in death in 1994.

Shirley rode her bike to music lessons, carrying her cello on her hip. She went on to play in the Bartlesville Symphony and was a dedicated teacher. President of the Bartlesville Physically Handicapped Club, she was honored for her work by Pilot International. A lifelong Methodist, her faith sustained her, music was her solace and family her joy.

A Memorial service will be held at Boston Avenue Church on Friday, November 14 at 4 p.m.

Donations may be made to Meals on Wheels.