David R. Butler, 66, of 501 Hobson Place, died at 2:30 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 17, 1996, at his home. He had been in ill health the past nine months.

He was born June 28, 1930, at Stevens Point, Wis., to George W. and Dorothy Glass Butler. He attended Stevens Point schools and graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point. He received his master's degree from Stout State University in Menomonie, Wis.

He married Mary Bartelt on July 15, 1956, at Marathon, Wis.

Mr. Butler taught printing at Boys Town in Omaha, Neb. He moved to Pittsburg and taught in the printing department at Pittsburg State University for 30 years. He retired in 1995.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife of the home; his mother; two sons, Bill Butler and Jim Butler; a daughter, Barbara Butler; and a granddaughter.

He was preceded in death by his father and a brother.

Private graveside services will be Tuesday morning at the Highland Park Cemetery. Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Tuesday at the First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Theodore A. Inman officiating. Friends may call after 11 a.m. Monday at the Brenner Chapel. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. Monday at the chapel.
David R. Butler

David R. Butler, 66, of 501 Hobson Place, died at 2:30 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 17, 1996, at his home. He had been in ill health the past nine months.

He was born June 28, 1930, at Stevens Point, Wis., to George W. and Dorothy Glass Butler. He attended Stevens Point schools and graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point. He received his master's degree from Stout State University in Menomonie, Wis.

He married Mary Bartelt on July 15, 1956, at Marathon, Wis.

Mr. Butler taught printing at Boys Town in Omaha, Neb. He moved to Pittsburg and taught in the printing department at Pittsburg State University for 30 years. He retired in 1995.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife of the home; his mother; two sons, Bill Butler and Jim Butler; a daughter, Barbara Butler; and a granddaughter.

He was preceded in death by his father and a brother.

Private graveside services will be Tuesday morning at the Highland Park Cemetery. Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Tuesday at the First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Theodore A. Inman officiating. Friends may call after 11 a.m. Monday at the Brenner Chapel. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. Monday at the chapel.