Leo Boisdrenghien

Leo Boisdrenghien, 83, of 2108 E. Fourth Street, died at 8:10 a.m., Saturday, March 26, 1994, in the emergency room at Mt. Carmel Medical Center, after an apparent heart attack at his home.

Mr. Boisdrenghien was born Jan. 15, 1911, in rural Pittsburg, the son of Victor and Eva Dahout Boisdrenghien. He attended Pittsburg schools graduating from Pittsburg High School in 1930, He also attended Pittsburg State University. He was a lifetime resident of Pittsburg.

He married Lavon Cunningham July 4, 1930, in Pittsburg.

Mr. Boisdrenghien was employed by McNally Pittsburg Manufacturing Company as a machinist and retired in 1979 after 51 years as planning manager of the machine shop.

Membership was in First Christian Church since 1926, where he was on the board of trustees, an elder and deacon. He also helped organize and was a charter member of the 20th Century Sunday School Class. He served on the building committee and finance committee. He was a member of the Pittsburg Zoning Board, AARP, where he served on the tax aid committee and delivered for the Meals on Wheels program. He was a member of Pittsburg Masonic Lodge No.187, Chapter No 58 Montjoie Commandry, Rob Morris Chapter Order of Eastern Star, Mirza Shrine, Mirza Greeters, and Kiwanis Club.

[photograph]
Boisdragenhien

Survivors include the wife of the home; one daughter, Vickie Palmer of Pittsburg; one sister, Alida Cherry of Shreveport, La.; one grandchild and one great-grandchild. He is preceded in death by a brother, Demar Boisdrenghien.

Services will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at First Christian Church with the Rev. Wayne Black officiating. Burial will be in Highland Park Cemetery. Masonic services will be at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Brenner Chapel. The family will receive friends following the services. Friends may call at Brenner Chapel after 10 a.m. Tuesday. Arrangements are under the direction of the Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth Street.
Leo Boisdreghien

Leo Boisdreghien, 83, of 2108 E. Fourth Street, died at 8:10 a.m., Saturday, March 26, 1994, in the emergency room at Mt. Carmel Medical Center, after an apparent heart attack at his home.

Mr. Boisdreghien was born Jan. 15, 1911, in rural Pittsburg, the son of Victor and Eva Dahout Boisdreghien. He attended Pittsburg schools graduating from Pittsburg High School in 1930. He also attended Pittsburg State University. He was a lifetime resident of Pittsburg.

He married Lavon Cunningham July 4, 1930, in Pittsburg.

Mr. Boisdreghien was employed by McNally Pittsburg Manufacturing Company as a machinist and retired in 1979 after 51 years as planning manager of the machine shop.

Membership was in First Christian Church since 1926, where he was on the board of trustees, an elder and deacon. He also helped organize and was a charter member of the 20th Century Sunday School Class. He served on the building committee and finance committee. He was a member of the Pittsburg Zoning Board, AARP, where he served on the tax aid committee and delivered for the Meals on Wheels program. He was a member of Pittsburg Masonic Lodge No. 187, Chapter No 58, Montjoie Commandry, Rob Morris Chapter Order of Eastern Star, Mirza Shrine, Mirza Greeters, and Kiwanis Club.

Survivors include the wife of the home; one daughter, Vickie Palmer of Pittsburg; one sister, Alida Cherry of Shreveport, La.; one grandchild and one great-grandchild. He is preceded in death by a brother, Demar Boisdreghien.

Services will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at First Christian Church with the Rev. Wayne Black officiating. Burial will be in Highland Park Cemetery. Masonic services will be at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Brenner Chapel. The family will receive friends following the services. Friends may call at Brenner Chapel after 10 a.m. Tuesday. Arrangements are under the direction of the Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth Street.