An overflow crowd said farewell to Joseph Lee (Bunk) Bournonville as funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon for the beloved school teacher and coach who captured the affection of those he taught.

Approximately 300 persons attended the funeral including many teachers and about 150 students who came to know Bournonville as a friend in the experience of learning rather than a teacher. About 75 of the students accompanied the funeral procession to Mt. Olive Cemetery. Many floral tributes banked the walls of the chapel.

Officiating at the funeral was the Rev. Arthur Pierson.
'Bunk' Bouronville

An overflow crowd said farewell to Joseph Lee (Bunk) Bouronville as funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon for the beloved school teacher and coach who captured the affection of those he taught.

Approximately 300 persons attended the funeral including many teachers and about 150 students who came to know Bouronville as a friend in the experience of learning rather than a teacher. About 75 of the students accompanied the funeral procession to Mt. Olive Cemetery. Many floral tributes banked the walls of the chapel.

Officiating at the funeral was the Rev. Arthur Pierson.