INDEPENDENCE - John A. Campbell, 65, of Independence, died at 2:38 p.m. Monday, Jan. 5, 2004, at Via Christi St. Francis Hospital at Wichita, where he was undergoing treatment.

He was born June 8, 1938, at Independence, Mo., to John Bitner and Temperance (Short) Campbell. He graduated from Parkville, Mo., High School in 1958. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Pittsburg State University.

He married Connie Kibbee on Jan. 18, 1963, at Whiting. She survives of the home.

Mr. Campbell taught for many years at Coffeyville, Independence and Sydney, Neb. He owned Radio Shack at Independence from 1980 to 1986. He also was an electronics consultant for ACC until he retired in 1992 due to an injury from a fall from a radio tower.

He was a member of First United Methodist Church, Independence Amateur Radio Club, Coffeyville Radio Club, Sydney Amateur Club and the AOPA. He was a lifetime member of ARRL/QST.

Additional survivors include two daughters, Tonya Ann Campbell and Cynthia Joanne Campbell, both of St. Joseph, Mo.; his mother of Kansas City, Kan.; and two brothers, Robert Vincent Campbell of Kansas City, Mo., and Monty Allen Campbell of California.

He was preceded in death by his father and one brother, Rodney Campbell.

Services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at First United Methodist Church at Independence with the Rev. Jack Gregory and the Rev. Marilyn Gregory officiating. Interment will be in High Prairie Cemetery, north of Altoona. Friends may call from noon to 8 p.m. today at Potts Chapel at Independence, where the family will receive friends from 8 to 11 a.m. Thursday. The casket will remain closed. Arrangements are under the direction of Potts Chapel of Independence.
