Betty Zane Cassady, 59, 3242 Garrison Ave, died at 5:25 a.m. Saturday at St. John's Regional Medical Center of injuries she sustained in a traffic accident about 7 p.m. Friday in Joplin.

Mrs. Cassady was born Dec. 4, 1930, at Wyandotte, Okla. She had lived in Joplin 24 years, moving from the state of Kansas. She graduated from Wyandotte High School in 1950. She received a bachelor of science degree in elementary education from Pittsburg (Kan.) State University in 1960. She received a master of science degree in elementary education from East Central Oklahoma State University, Ada, in 1968.

She was an elementary school teacher at Chanute, Kan., Lawrence, Kan., Baldwin, Kan., and Springdale, Ark. She was an elementary teacher in the Joplin R-8 School District the past 24 years. She was a kindergarten teacher at Cecil Floyd Elementary School, Joplin, at the time of her death.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church, the Seneca-Cayuga Indian Tribe of Oklahoma and the Parent-Teacher Organization at Cecil Floyd Elementary School. She was past president of Beta Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma. She was a former member of the American Association of University Women.

She married Calvin Cassady Jr. on Oct. 28, 1950, at Sallisaw, Okla. He survives.

Additional survivors include two sons, Thomas Cassady, 702 N. Jackson Ave., and Calvin Cassady IV, Carl Junction; her mother, Gladys Winnie, Miami, Okla.; two brothers, Roland Winnie, Seneca, and Joseph Winnie, Wyandotte, Okla.; four sisters, Jerry Walker, Milan, Ind., Ramona Daniels and Sue Winnie, both of Tahlequah, Okla., and Gladys Preston, Colorado Springs, Colo.; and four grandchildren.

Services will be at 3:30 p.m. Monday at the First United Methodist Church. Ron Cansler will officiate. Burial will be in Mount Hope Cemetery, Webb City. Arrangements are under the direction of Parker Mortuary.

Pallbearers will be Floyd Leonard, Ronald Howard, Lloyd Jackson, Bill Land, Harold Jacobs and Jimmy C. Hefley.

The family will be at the home.

Contributions may be made to the
Betty Cassady

Betty Zane Cassady, 59, 3242 Garrison Ave., died at 5:25 a.m. Saturday at St. John's Regional Medical Center of injuries she sustained in a traffic accident about 7 p.m. Friday in Joplin.

Mrs. Cassady was born Dec. 4, 1930, at Wyandotte, Okla. She had lived in Joplin 24 years, moving from the state of Kansas. She graduated from Wyandotte High School in 1950. She received a bachelor of science degree in elementary education from Pittsburg (Kan.) State University in 1960. She received a master of science degree in elementary education from East Central Oklahoma State University, Ada, in 1968.

She was an elementary schoolteacher at Chanute, Kan., Lawrence, Kan., Baldwin, Kan., and Springdale, Ark. She was an elementary teacher in the Joplin R-8 School District the past 24 years. She was a kindergarten teacher at Cecil Floyd Elementary School, Joplin, at the time of her death.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church, the Seneca-Cayuga Indian Tribe of Oklahoma and the Parent-Teacher Organization at Cecil Floyd Elementary School. She was past president of Beta Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma. She was a former member of the American Association of University Women.

She married Calvin Cassady Jr. on Oct. 28, 1950, at Sallisaw, Okla. He survives.

Additional survivors include two sons, Thomas Cassady, 702 N. Jackson Ave., and Calvin Cassady IV, Carl Junction; her mother, Gladys Winnie, Miami, Okla.; two brothers, Roland Winnie, Seneca, and Joseph Winnie, Wyandotte, Okla.; four sisters, Jerry Walker, Milan, Ind., Ramona Daniels and Sue Winnie, both of Tahlequah, Okla., and Gladys Preston, Colorado Springs, Colo.; and four grandchildren.

Services will be at 3:30 p.m. Monday at the First United Methodist Church. Ron Cansler will officiate. Burial will be in Mount Hope Cemetery, Webb City. Arrangements are under the direction of Parker Mortuary.

Pallbearers will be Floyd Leonard, Ronald Howard, Lloyd Jackson, Bill Land, Harold Jacobs and Jimmy C. Hefley.

The family will be at the home. Contributions may be made to the