John C. "Jack" Campbell, 79, of 223 W. Adams St., died Wednesday, Dec. 6, 1995, at Mt Carmel Medical Center. He had been ill since March and a patient in the hospital since last Friday.

He was born Sept. 17, 1916, at Joplin, Mo. He grew up at Joplin, graduated from Joplin High School and attended Kansas State Teachers College, now Pittsburg State University. He moved to Pittsburg in 1951, and was a resident since that time.

He married Leslie Ann McColgin Aug. 4, 1940, at Neosho, Mo.

He was a salesman for Joplin Printing Company and Pittcraft Printing Company of Pittsburg. He started his own printing broker business, Jack Campbell Company. He semi-retired in 1995 due to ill health.

He was a member of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church and the Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity of PSU. He and his wife served as a host family to international students at PSU.

Survivors include his wife of the home; two sons, Dr. Jerry Campbell of Naperville, Ill., and Father Doug Campbell of McPherson; one daughter, Julie Mayfield of Tulsa, Okla.; one sister, Betty Hintgen of Falls Church, Vir.; three grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one son, Michael Campbell.

A concelebrated funeral mass will be 11 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church, with the Rev. Doug Campbell as celebrant, the Rev. Thomas Stroot as homilist and Bishop Eugene Gerber of Wichita with the committal. The rosary will be recited 7 p.m. Friday at Bath-Naylor Funeral Home. The family will receive friends following the rosary. Following the funeral mass, a graveside service for family and friends in Joplin will be held 2:30 p.m. at Mt. Hope Cemetery at Joplin, Mo.
Obituaries

John C. "Jack" Campbell

John C. "Jack" Campbell, 79, of 223 W. Adams St., died Wednesday, Dec. 6, 1995, at Mt. Carmel Medical Center. He had been ill since March and a patient in the hospital since last Friday.

He was born Sept. 17, 1916, at Joplin, Mo. He grew up at Joplin, graduated from Joplin High School and attended Kansas State Teachers College, now Pittsburg State University. He moved to Pittsburg in 1951, and was a resident since that time.

He married Leslie Ann McColgin Aug. 4, 1940, at Neosho, Mo.

He was a salesman for Joplin Printing Company and Pittcraft Printing Company of Pittsburg. He started his own printing broker business, Jack Campbell Company. He semi-retired in 1995 due to ill health.

He was a member of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church and the Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity of PSU. He and his wife served as a host family to international students at PSU.

Survivors include his wife of the home; two sons, Dr. Jerry Campbell of Naperville, Ill., and Father Doug Campbell of McPherson; one daughter, Julie Mayfield of Tulsa, Okla.; one sister, Betty Hintgen of Falls Church, Vir.; three grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one son, Michael Campbell.

A concelebrated funeral mass will be 11 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church, with the Rev. Doug Campbell as celebrant, the Rev. Thomas Stroot as homilist and Bishop Eugene Gerber of Wichita with the committal. The rosary will be recited 7 p.m. Friday at Bath-Naylor Funeral Home. The family will receive friends following the rosary. Following the funeral mass, a graveside service for family and friends in Joplin will be held 2:30 p.m. at Mt. Hope Cemetery at Joplin, Mo.