Former teacher Merrill Chaney dies on Sunday
[B 1935; MS 1947]

Former NEO College instructor Merrill Chaney, 79, 119 13th NW, died Sunday at Baptist Regional Health Center after a sudden illness.

Mr. Chaney was born Oct. 1, 1907, in Hiattville, Kan., and had lived in Miami since 1945. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Pittsburg State University. He taught at schools in Riverton and Cherokee, Kan., before coming to Northeastern A&M College in 1945. He taught drafting and woodworking at NEO until his retirement in 1973. He developed NEO's annual Student Craftsman's Fair. He served on the Northeast Area Vo-Tech School Board for several years.

A 32nd-degree Mason, Mr. Chaney was a member of the Miami Masonic Lodge and the Scottish Rite Consistory, Tulsa. He was a past president of the Miami Noon Lions Club and also served as chapter secretary for many years. His other Lions Club activities included serving as zone chairman, deputy district governor, district governor and international counselor. He was instrumental in chartering the Miami Evening Lions and the Wyandotte Lions Club. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church, Miami.

Survivors include his wife, Eileen Chaney, of the home; a son, Dwight Chaney, Grove; a daughter, Mrs. Irma Lou Lamb, Fresno, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Darlene Nelson, Waco, Texas, and Mrs. Audrey Brown, Girard, Kan.; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the First United Methodist Church, Miami. The Rev. Jack Atkinson will officiate. Burial will be in GAR Cemetery, under direction of the Jim Thomas and Son Funeral Home, Miami.

Pallbearers and honorary pallbearers will be members of the Miami Noon Lions Club. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Noon Lions Club, the United Methodist Church or the American Heart Association.
