Helen C. (Caskey) Childress [BSEd, Mathematics, 1942]

JOPLIN, Mo. - Helen C. (Caskey) Childress, 72, of Joplin, Mo., died at 8:40 p.m. Friday, Feb. 11, 1994, at St. John's Regional Medical Center in Joplin after a six-month illness.

She was born Sept. 6, 1921, in Joplin. She had lived there for 17 years after moving from Baxter Springs.

Mrs. Childress was the first woman insurance adjuster in Albuquerque, N.M., in the late 1950s. She also was director of payroll for the Ozark Salad Co., in Baxter Springs for the past 20 years. She was the first woman president of the Baxter Springs School Board.

She married John Brewster who preceded her in death in 1955. She then married Howard Childress who preceded her in death in 1978. She was a Presbyterian.

Survivors include three sons, Steve Brewster of Joplin Keith Childress of Omaha, Neb., Richard "Dick" Brewster of Oklahoma City; two sisters, Mary Clark of Eden Prairie, Minn., and Sammie Strain of Wichita; and six grandchildren.

The body has been taken for cremation. A memorial service is planned for a later date. The Parker Mortuary of Joplin is in charge of arrangements.
Deaths

Helen C. (Caskey) Childress

JOPLIN, Mo. — Helen C. (Caskey) Childress, 72, of Joplin, Mo., died at 8:40 p.m. Friday, Feb. 11, 1994, at St. John’s Regional Medical Center in Joplin after a six-month illness.

She was born Sept. 6, 1921, in Joplin. She had lived there for 17 years after moving from Baxter Springs.

Mrs. Childress was the first woman insurance adjuster in Albuquerque, N.M., in the late 1950s. She also was director of payroll for the Ozark Salad Co., in Baxter Springs for the past 20 years. She was the first woman president of the Baxter Springs School Board.

She married John Brewster who preceded her in death in 1955. She then married Howard Childress who preceded her in death in 1978.

She was a Presbyterian.

Survivors include three sons, Steve Brewster of Joplin Keith Childress of Omaha, Neb., Richard “Dick” Brewster of Oklahoma City; two sisters, Mary Clark of Eden Prairie, Minn., and Sammie Strain of Wichita; and six grandchildren.

The body has been taken for cremation. A memorial service is planned for a later date. The Parker Mortuary of Joplin is in charge of arrangements.