
He was born Feb. 25, 1950, at Pittsburg, to Lillian McWilliams of Joplin and Doyle Clugston of Pittsburg. He attended Pittsburg High School and Pittsburg State University, where he received his master's degree with honors.

He practiced clinical psychology at St. Francis Hospital at Cape Girardeau, Mo. He later joined the administrative staff at Harbor View State Hospital at Valdez, Alaska, for 12 years. In 1991, he moved to Altamonte Springs.

Survivors include his wife, Bonnie, of the home; one daughter, Jennifer; his parents; one sister, Kim Hickey of Overland Park; his maternal grandmother, Nina Prideaux, of Pittsburg; and two nieces and one nephew.

Services will be 3 p.m. today at the Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home at Forest City, Fla.

He was born Feb. 25, 1950, at Pittsburg, to Lillian McWilliams of Joplin and Doyle Clugston of Pittsburg. He attended Pittsburg High School and Pittsburg State University, where he received his master’s degree with honors.

He practiced clinical psychology at St. Francis Hospital at Cape Girardeau, Mo. He later joined the administrative staff at Harbor View State Hospital at Valdez, Alaska, for 12 years. In 1991, he moved to Altamonte Springs.

Survivors include his wife, Bonnie, of the home; one daughter, Jennifer; his parents; one sister, Kim Hickey of Overland Park; his maternal grandmother, Nina Prideaux of Pittsburg; and two nieces and one nephew.

Services will be 3 p.m. today at the Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home at Forest City, Fla.