Orval H. Close

Orval H. Close, 86, of the Hotel Besse Apartments, 121 E. Fourth, longtime Pittsburg banker, died at 11 p.m. Tuesday, July 18, 1989, at his home. He had been in ill health the past year.

He was born on Dec. 15, 1902, in Arma. He was the son of William and Clara Volk Close. He attended schools in Arma and also attended two years at the Normal Teachers College (now Pittsburg State University) and one year at the Pittsburg Business College.

Mr. Close moved to Pittsburg in the late 1920s. He started at the First National Bank in 1937 as a bookkeeper, retiring in 1969 after 32 years as assistant cashier.

He was a longtime member of the First United Methodist Church, where he taught the adult Sunday school class for many years. He had been a member of the church choir for over 45 years. He served as treasurer of the Optimist Club and was the first president of the local chapter of the AARP.

Mr. Close had been a regular entertainer singing for residents of local nursing homes for many years. He sang in choruses at what is now Pittsburg State University and also sang with the Pittsburg Barbershop Organization when it was active here.

Survivors include one brother, Virgil Close of 704 W. Second and four sisters, Bertrude Kline of 403 N. Rouse, Coy Rittenhouse of Sunset Manor in Frontenac, Bernice Shackelton of Sebring, Fla., and Martha Scott of Kansas City, Mo. He was preceded in death by one brother Ray Close.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. David Weible officiating. Cremation will follow the service, and the cremains will be buried at a later date in Highland Park Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. Friday in the Brenner Chapel. The Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth, is in charge of arrangements.
Deaths

Orval H. Close

Orval H. Close, 86, of the Hotel Besse Apartments, 121 E. Fourth, longtime Pittsburg banker, died at 11 p.m. Tuesday, July 18, 1989, at his home. He had been ill health the past year.

He was born on Dec. 15, 1902, in Arma. He was the son of William and Clara Volk Close. He attended schools in Arma and also attended two years at the Normal Teachers College (now Pittsburg State University) and one year at the Pittsburg Business College.

Mr. Close moved to Pittsburg in the late 1920s. He started at the First National Bank in 1937 as a bookkeeper, retiring in 1969 after 32 years as assistant cashier.

He was a longtime member of the First United Methodist Church, where he taught the adult Sunday School class for many years. He had been a member of the church choir for over 45 years. He served as treasurer of the Optimist Club and was the first president of the local chapter of the AARP.

Mr. Close had been a regular entertainer singing for residents of local nursing homes for many years. He sang in choruses at what is now Pittsburg State University and also sang with the Pittsburg Barbershop Organization when it was active here.

Survivors include one brother, Virgil Close of 704 W. Second and four sisters, Bertrude Kline of 403 N. Rouse, Coy Rittenhouse of Sunset Manor in Frontenac, Bernice Shackelton of Sebring, Fla., and Martha Scott of Kansas City, Mo. He was preceded in death by one brother Ray Close.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. David Weible officiating. Cremation will follow the service, and the cremains will be buried at a later date in Highland Park Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. Friday in the Brenner Chapel. The Brenner Mortuary, 114 E. Fourth, is in charge of arrangements.