Eunice Irene Clark

She was born May 19, 1904, at Marmaton, to Matthew "Mack" and Edna Lena Smith Comstock.

She graduated from Fort Scott High School and received a teaching degree from Pittsburg State University. She was a school teacher, teaching first through eighth grade in various rural school districts for 33 years, retiring in 1969. She lived in rural western Kansas for 23 years, moving back to Uniontown in 1969.

She was member of the Eastern Star, a lifetime member of the National Retired Teachers Association, a member of the Bourbon County Retired Teachers Association, and the Uniontown United Methodist Church. She attended two National Grange Conventions.

Survivors include two brothers, Leo Comstock of Redfield, and Mack Comstock of Fort Scott; one step-son, Roy Clark of Fort Scott; and several nieces and nephews.

She was also preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Margaret Middleton, Fanny Taylor, and Thorea Ramsey; two brothers, Cecil Comstock, and Smith Comstock; and a step-son, Russell Clark.

Rev. R.B. Shoemaker will conduct graveside services at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 21, at Uniontown Cemetery. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Konantz-Cheney Funeral Home. Family and friends will meet at the cemetery.

©Copyright 2004 The Morning Sun
http://www.morningsun.net/stories/021904/obi_20040219033.shtml
FORT SCOTT — Eunice Irene Clark, 99, of Fort Scott died Wednesday morning, Feb. 18, 2004, at the Guest Home Estates No. 6. She was born May 19, 1904, at Marmaton, to Matthew “Mack” and Edna Lena Smith Comstock. She graduated from Fort Scott High School and received a teaching degree from Pittsburg State University. She was a school teacher, teaching first through eighth grade in various rural school districts for 33 years, retiring in 1969. She lived in rural western Kansas for 23 years, moving back to Uniontown in 1969. She was member of the Eastern Star, a lifetime member of the National Retired Teachers Association, a member of the Bourbon County Retired Teachers Association, and the Uniontown United Methodist Church. She attended two National Grange Conventions.

Survivors include two brothers, Leo Comstock of Redfield, and Mack Comstock of Fort Scott; one step-son, Roy Clark of Fort Scott; and several nieces and nephews.

She was also preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Margaret Middleton, Fanny Taylor, and Thorea Ramsey; two brothers, Cecil Comstock, and Smith Comstock; and a step-son, Russell Clark.

Rev. R.B. Shoemaker will conduct graveside services at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 21, at Uniontown Cemetery. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Konantz-Cheney Funeral Home. Family and friends will meet at the cemetery.