Jerry W. Craft [Morning Sun, April 16, 1990 - B 1964]

OVERLAND PARK - Jerry W. Craft, 52, of Overland Park, died at 9:23 p.m. Saturday, April 14, 1990, at University of Kansas Medical Center in Kansas City. He had been in ill health and a patient in the hospital for three weeks.

He was born on May 5, 1937, at Neosho, Mo., to Warren Anderson and Wilma Irene Charleton Craft. He had lived in the Kansas City area for the past seven years, moving from Newark Calif., where he had lived for 14 years. He lived in Pittsburg for several years until 1965.

[photograph]
Craft

Mr. Craft served in the United States Air Force. He received his bachelor's of science degree in business administration from Pittsburg State University in 1963 and his master's of science degree in public administration from the University of Missouri in Kansas City in 1969.

Mr. Craft had been a training officer with the United States Department of Education since 1966.

Survivors include his wife of the home in Overland Park; one son, Marvin Craft of Roseland Park; two daughters, Michele Craft of Overland Park and Monica Craft of the home; one sister, Ellen Cobb of 2606 Omaha in Pittsburg.

The family will receive friends from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the D. W. Newcomers and Sons Funeral Home in Overland Park, where the parish rosary will be recited at 7 p.m.

Services will be 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Bath-Naylor Funeral Home, 522 S. Broadway, with the Rev. James O'Shea of Sacred Heart Church in Frontenac officiating. Burial will be in the Mt. Olive Cemetery. The parish rosary will be recited at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Bath-Naylor Funeral Home, and the family will receive friends after the rosary service until service time.
Jerry W. Craft

OVERLAND PARK - Jerry W. Craft, 52, of Overland Park, died at 9:23 p.m. Saturday, April 14, 1990, at University of Kansas Medical Center in Kansas City. He had been in ill health and a patient in the hospital for three weeks.

He was born on May 5, 1937, at Neosho, Mo., to Warren Anderson and Wilma Irene Charlton Craft. He had lived in the Kansas City area for the past seven years, moving from Newark, Calif., where he had lived for 14 years. He lived in Pittsburg for several years until 1965.

Mr. Craft served in the United States Air Force. He received his bachelor's of science degree in business administration from Pittsburg State University in 1963 and his master's of science degree in public administration from the University of Missouri in Kansas City in 1969.

Mr. Craft had been a training officer with the United States Department of Education since 1966.

Survivors include his wife of the home in Overland Park; one son, Marvin Craft of Roseland Park; two daughters, Michele Craft of Overland Park and Monica Craft of the home; one sister, Ellen Cobb of 2606 Omaha in Pittsburg.

The family will receive friends from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the D. W. Newcomers and Sons Funeral Home in Overland Park, where the parish rosary will be recited at 7 p.m.

Services will be 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Bath-Naylor Funeral Home, 522 S. Broadway, with the Rev. James O'Shea of Sacred Heart Church in Frontenac officiating. Burial will be in the Mt. Olive Cemetery. The parish rosary will be recited at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Bath-Naylor Funeral Home, and the family will receive friends after the rosary service until service time.