Crawford

Ms. Crawford worked as a school teacher in the Missions in Dixon, N.M., for eight years before teaching in Girard for 11 years. She then moved to Atlantic and taught school there for six years, before returning to Girard, where she taught for an additional two year before retiring in 1962.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Girard and numerous church organizations. She led a prayer circle at the Heritage Nursing Home of Girard every third Thursday since the home opened in 1968. She was also a member of numerous social clubs and home demonstration units.

Survivors include nine cousins, who helped provide for her care: Joe and Marion Fry, Julia Kline and Marvin Cuthbertson, all of Girard; Opal Johnson of Farlington; Douglas Keller of Frontenac; Helen Muse of Pittsburg; Ellen Lee Meador of Owasso, Okla.; and James L. Unroe of La Mesa, Calif.

Services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church of Girard, with the Rev. Walter H. Swetnam officiating. Friends may call after noon today at the Smith-Carson-Wall Funeral Home of Girard.
