FORT SCOTT - Mabel Creager, 85, of Fort Scott died at 4:30 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 9, 1987, at Mercy Hospital in Fort Scott.

She was born Nov. 5, 1901 in Eminence, Mo., to John and Addie Buffington Craeger. She had lived in the Brazilton area, taught school in Montana several years and moved to Girard upon retirement.

Mrs. Creager had been a resident at a Fort Scott nursing home for some time.

Survivors include one brother, Walter Craeger of Kansas City, Mo. and one sister, Beulah Powell, of Springfield Mo.

Graveside services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Girard City Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of W. D. Smith Chapel in Girard.
FORT SCOTT — Mabel Creager, 85, of Fort Scott died at 4:30 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 9, 1987, at Mercy Hospital in Fort Scott.

She was born Nov. 5, 1901, in Eminence, Mo., to John and Addie Buffington Craeger. She had lived in the Brazilton area, taught school in Montana several years and moved to Girard upon retirement.

Mrs. Creager had been a resident at a Fort Scott nursing home for some time.

Survivors include one brother, Walter Craeger of Kansas City, Mo., and one sister, Beulah Powell of Springfield, Mo.

Graveside services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Girard City Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of W.D. Smith Chapel in Girard.